

SAVE OUR LIBRARIES

Lyme and Charmouth fighting closures

CAMPAIGNS have been launched in Lyme Regis and Charmouth to save the town and village libraries.

With Dorset Library Service having to slash its budget, both libraries are among 20 of the smaller outlets in the county threatened with closure.

And whilst it looks like the Lyme library in Silver Street might be saved, Charmouth is facing another tough battle to keep its service open.

When the Charmouth library, one of the smallest in the county, was faced with closure a few years ago, the village set up a campaign committee and the library was ultimately saved when Charmouth Parish Council agreed to pay for manning hours at a cost of £4,000 per annum.

By Philip Evans

A meeting was held in a private house in the village on Saturday morning, attended by county councillor Colonel Geoffery Brierley, who lives in the village, and a number of concerned residents, including two former librarians.

Colonel Brierley also attended a meeting of Charmouth Parish Council last evening (Tuesday) in the hope of getting an action committee formed again.

And tomorrow (Thursday) he will be putting the case for Dorset's smaller libraries, including Lyme and Charmouth, at a meeting in county hall.

A final decision on the fate of the libraries will be made in February.

Colonel Brierley is also planning to speak to West Dorset MP Oliver Letwin in a bid to get legislation changed so a 20p charge could be made for every book taken out by adults. He believes that this could help to finance the county's smaller libraries.

In Lyme, hundreds have already signed a petition calling on the county council to keep the town's library open.

Dozens of signatures were collected at the club for young people's open day on Saturday and another petition has been started at the town council offices.

An update on the review of library services in Dorset was given to Lyme Regis town councillors at a

Youth club is now The Hub

THIS is the moment when the team behind the re-opening of the former club for young people in Lyme Regis, led by project leader Fran Williams (foreground) found out that the new youth club will be known as The Hub in future.

The new name was chosen by the public who attended Saturday's successful open day from dozens of names put forward.

The open day was a huge success with nearly 1,000 people visiting the Church Street building between 9 am and 6 pm. Full report on pages 6 and 7

PAULA English runs Nellie May's Wholefood Grocers in Beaminster with her partner Neil Judd.

Former German and French teacher, Paula opened the shop last February and has been on a steep learning curve as she gets to grips with running her first business.

Paula moved to Dorset in 2000 and has lived in Bridport and Broadwindsor before moving to Beaminster. In her career as a teacher she worked short-term contracts at both Budmouth Technology College in Weymouth and Woodroffe Secondary School in Lyme Regis, she also worked as a supply teacher for Colfox School in Bridport.

Paula's three children, Morgan, 17, Conal, 14 and Ronan eight all attend school in Beaminster.

Paula loves to travel and has spent time living in Malaysia, West Africa, Portugal and Germany.

WHAT made you make the break from teaching?

I decided I'd rather do something different and always talked about running a food shop. This is the first time I've run a shop and it's a steep learning curve. We've always talked about how it would be great to have a shop selling all this stuff we have always bought. In fact we are selling a lot of stuff that we didn't really know about before having the shop so it's been really interesting.

WHAT is the ethos of your shop?

The focus is on wholefoods and as many local products as possible. We believe in supporting local communities and food should ideally come from as close as possible. We have got a lot of Dorset, Devon and Cornwall products which we class as fairly local. We also try to provide a service whereby we order things for customers as well, if somebody wants something particular we will order it in for them.

WHAT superfoods would you recommend?

I'd say that everything we've got is good food because it's free from additives and fillers. I don't particularly believe in faddish superfoods really, we sell beetroot juice because it's supposed to be wonderful but I'm not really a superfoods sort of person. I'm more committed to good quality food which hasn't got any junk in it and I think if you follow a varied diet of wholefoods you are going to be a healthy person. We sell lots of treats too like chocolate and alcohol, it's not just the healthy food.

HOW have the community reacted to your arrival?

Initially I think a lot of people were quite cautious and they didn't really know what wholefoods meant. People came gradually and now we have got quite a lot of regular customers who come in and that's been a really good part of the whole experience really. We met some really nice people and it's really nice to talk to people, I think that's a really important part of local community life really and I think people like to share stories and chat.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

ARE you glad you stopped teaching?

Yeah, teaching is really enjoyable but some aspects of the job aren't quite so enjoyable, the crowd control element takes up quite a lot of your energy as a teacher. Sometimes I miss it. I miss using German because I love German, it's my passion, but it was quite hardwork and quite frustrating. This is more satisfying I would say.

WHAT is the biggest lesson you have learnt in business?

Initially working out what we needed to buy in terms of furniture and how to stock the shop and ways to bring in more business. For example we added the ice cream freezer because we thought that would be a good seller and then we got an alcohol license because we thought would be good. I suppose it's been a steep curve in learning what sells and what doesn't. Lots of good experiments and lots of bad ones.

WHO would be your three dream guests at a dinner party?

I would say Kate Adie because she is very brave and very intelligent. Liam Neeson, because I've always had a bit of a soft spot for him and Hugh Dennis, because he is so funny.

WHAT was the last book you read, film you watched and CD you listened to?

The CD is one we have in the shop and it's 1,000 northern soul tracks, because I love northern soul. The book I'm currently reading is a collection of Irish short stories edited by Aaron Enright. The last film was ghost, about a ghost-writer with Ewan McGregor who played the role brilliantly.

Pre-school to close having failed to meet standards

PARENTS of young children in the town were shocked to learn this week that the Lyme Regis Pre-School will close on Wednesday, February 16th.

The pre-school at the SureStart Centre, next to the primary school in King's Way, has been the subject of negotiations since July of last year. After failing to reach the required standards, the staff and committee met with members of the Dorset County Council Early Years and Childcare Service to discuss improvements which needed to be made in order for the county to continue with funding for the group.

By Jackie Evans

In a letter to parents this week the chairman of the Pre-school committee, Amanda Brundish, said: "Over the last three months the committee and staff have been working closely alongside a multi-disciplinary team from the Children's Centre, Early Years and Childcare Service from the county council to achieve outcomes highlighted in the action plan.

"Despite the hard work from everybody involved it was deemed that the progress made was not sufficient. Therefore this has resulted in the 3-4 year old funding being withdrawn.

"The committee have agreed that we are unable to continue to operate without the funding. So it is with great regret that we write to inform you that as from Wednesday 16th February, 2011, Lyme Regis Pre-School will close."

There has been a pre-school or playgroup in Lyme for many years, starting at the Woodmead Halls, then moving to a temporary building in the playground of the junior school (now St Michael's Business Centre), then back to the Woodmead Halls and finally about two years ago into the Surestart Centre.

Asked for a comment by the View, a statement from Dorset County Council read: "Unfortunately, following a number of support packages, we feel that sufficient progress has not been made and, in December, we notified Lyme Regis Pre-School that they will be removed from our directory on February 18th. This means they will no longer be entitled to funding from the Department for Education.

"We will continue to offer support to the group and parents looking for alternative childcare. Parents can contact our Family Information Service on 01305 221066.

"We will also continue to try and find alternative provision for children in the Lyme Regis area."

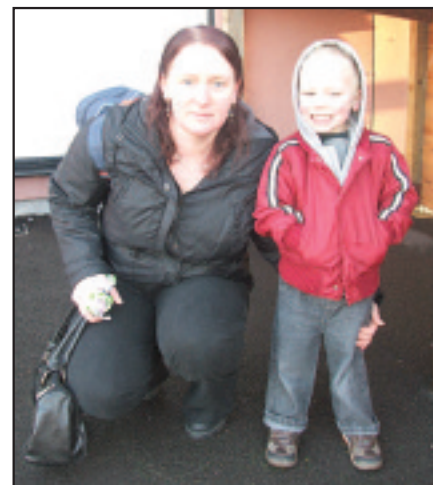

■ NOWHERE TO GO - Karina Shepherd with her daughter Alex who has been attending the centre for ten months.

She said: "They fought and fought to open this and now they decide they are going to close it. There is nowhere else here, absolutely nowhere.

"There are 40 kids here who have all now got to find another pre-school. That's the government for you.

"When Alex first went she was really shy and quiet but she has come on brilliantly. Now all that is just going to go to waste.

"Alex will miss it when she leaves, she's got loads of friends there and they have all grown up together."

■ DEEPLY UPSET - Annette Denning with her son Jacob who has been attending the centre for a year.

She said: "I'm deeply upset because it's been here a long time. I just wish there was a way we could stop it but I don't think there is.

"Jacob is going to miss it very much, he loves coming here. They all love it here, all the kids. They all really enjoy coming and they all come out happy.

"I just think the county council could have thought about it a bit more because there is just nothing here anymore. We have nothing, unless something comes up in the next month.

"I go to work a couple of mornings a week but I have family who can help me so it's not a great problem, but he needs it, he needs the interaction.

"I knew there had been problems but I thought they had been resolved so it was a shock when I got the letter."

Campaigns to save our libraries

meeting of the Strategy and Policy Committee last week. Town clerk Mike Lewis reported that a number of communities in Dorset were getting together to fight the closures.

As far as Lyme was concerned there seemed to be only two options - the community to take over the running of the library or closure. But he hoped there might be a middle way whereby the hours were reduced, but that was not on the table.

Mr Lewis said he had been informed that a lot of Lyme Regis people had written to Dorset County Council opposing the closure, more than in any other area in the county.

Councillor Sally Holman thought the only option was having a mobile library or the community taking it over.

Councillor Daryl Turner said they needed to look at alternatives, reminding councillors that Lyme Regis Development Trust had suggested moving the library to St Michael's Business Centre.

Councillor Lucy Campbell said the library service had shown "minimal interest" in the Development Trust idea.

Councillor Ken Meech said they should make a case pointing out how isolated Lyme Regis was at the end of the county and stressing that the town had an ageing community which relied on the library.

Councillor Lorna Jenkin thought the library could reduce their costs by moving to a smaller premises, such as a lock-up shop.

Committee chairman Owen Lovell thought they should be defending the library and asking for the status quo to be maintained.

Those wishing to oppose the possible closure of the Lyme library can do so by registering their protest on www.dorsetforyou.com/libraries

Palmers start detailed survey of Three Cups site

PALMERS Brewery, owners of The Three Cups in Lyme Regis, has begun work on a detailed survey measuring the impact of any site development on near neighbours.

Surveyors are contacting all adjoining properties to request access.

Palmers property agent Nigel Jones of Chester-ton Humberts said: "The architects want to build up a detailed 3D model of the existing position and then use this to see how the proposed scheme will impact on the neighbours. At the same time, further historical analysis of the existing building is being undertaken."

The surveys are expected to take some weeks to complete. Palmers plans to hold a second public consultation later this year before making a planning application

New term for youth theatre

LYME Youth Theatre's new term of classes started on Saturday with two groups planning performances at the end of term in April which will explore sea themes to fit in the Maritime Lyme.

Monika Henshaw, LYT Co-ordinator said: "Each term we work on a performance piece and we always like to be able to support community events. Maritime Lyme gives us just that opportunity."

The older class is tackling something completely different - murder mysteries!

The three classes meet each Saturday morning at the Marine Theatre - the Beginners (aged 5-7), YLYT (aged 8-11) and LYT, the older group, aged 11-14. It is not too late to join in the fun next week.

This was incorrect. There will be a free buffet. We apologise for this error.

Magistrates mark 650 years of service in Dorset

DORSET Magistrates will be celebrating 650 years of service at Dorchester Court by acting out cases from centuries gone by later this month.

On Tuesday, January 25th the courts in High West Street will be opened to the public in order that they can witness first hand Magistrates dealing with cases as heard hundreds of years ago.

At regular intervals during the day, members of the Dorset Magistrates Association will re-enact the cases and pass sentences in line with original legislation.

The cases and sentences will be both realistic and accurate and offer members of the local communities the opportunity to witness justice 18th century style.

There will be a chance to visit the cells at the courts and see old style police and law enforcement uniform and equipment.

Visitors will then be transported to 2011 and witness the same cases based on today's laws.

Representatives from other criminal justice agencies including local officers from Dorset Police and Her Majesty's Court Service will be in attendance with crime prevention advice and information on how a court operates.

Local magistrates will also be on hand to offer advice to any member of the community who is thinking about applying to become a magistrate.

John Adams, JP, Chair of the Dorset Magistrates Association, said "We are very excited about marking this date in our history and we hope that members of the community will enjoy seeing the difference in justice then and justice now.

"It is very important that the Criminal Justice System is as open as possible in order that the community's confidence is maintained in one of the best legal systems in the world."

To further celebrate this momentous occasion there will be a service of commemoration at St Peter's Church, Dorchester at 12:30pm to which everyone is cordially invited.

Light refreshments will be available afterwards and Reverend Vicky Thurtell will conduct the service.

Entry to the court event, which runs from 9:15am to 4pm, is free and will be both educational and informative.

Further information including a promotional video can be found at www.youtube.com/watch?v=Hp-H4lf8Q3w

Museum win fight for the Guildhall car park

TOWN councillors in Lyme Regis have given "in principle" backing to plans by Lyme Regis Museum to extend their facilities which will mean building over the town council car park adjacent to the Guildhall.

The museum have been pressing the council for a decision so that they can proceed with their plans to provide a "world class" facility for Lyme Regis at a cost of £4 million.

At a previous meeting a decision was deferred, despite the fact they approved the plans four years ago when the project was first mooted, for members to look at suggested plans for an extension to the town council offices at Guildhall Cottage. These plans were drawn up in 1993 to provide more accommodation for the town council, including disabled access, a new reception area and committee room, at a cost of £350,000.

by Philip Evans

The museum consider the car parking land to be "critical to their extension plans" but some councillors were reluctant to shut off the Guildhall on the seaward side. Policy chairman Owen Lovell described such a scheme as "abhorrent".

Replacement parking for the town council would be provided on the higher level behind the Guildhall via the existing access.

Councillor Stan Williams warned that if the museum scheme went ahead they would not be able to revive their own plans.

The matter was referred to last week's meeting of the Strategy and Policy Committee when councillors were asked once again to renew their "in principle" decision, made in 2006, so the museum could move forward with the plans to build over the car park.

Councillor Daryl Turner proposed that the council give their approval, pointing out that the museum attracted 20,000 visitors a year, making "a great difference to this town".

Councillor Ken Meech seconded the proposition subject to planning approval.

The Mayor, Councillor Michaela Ellis, understood the need for a decision but she was concerned that many local people had approached her urging the council not to give the land to the museum.

And she added: "No one has come to me saying 'give it to them'."

Councillor Sally Holman thought a "world class museum" would be a great benefit to the town.

Councillor Peter Williams said it was clear from the plans that the museum extension would "nullify" the council's opportunities of extending their offices in the future.

Commented Councillor Meech: "All we are being asked for is a decision in principle. All this information will be dealt with in the planning cycle."

Councillor Lorna Jenkin thought that the possibility of extending the council offices was just "castles in the air", adding: "It's never going to happen in the medium to long term. I think it is a red herring."

Councillor Lovell thought that if the council gave their approval they should make sure their own position was protection in the future, particularly with regard to parking and access.

Nothing new

Councillor Meech: "This is nothing new. We have been there many times."

Councillor Lovell: "If we are going to give this to them we should make sure there is some planning gain for us."

Councillor Williams pointed out that the council car park was used by delivery vans which might not be able to get up onto the higher level.

Councillor Turner pointed out that they did not need a three and a half ton lorry for deliveries when they had a pick-up truck with the same footprint as a car.

Councillor Lovell said the existing access was the only one for any major works that were required. "We should not be disadvantaged by this," he concluded.

Councillor Turner said all such concerns could be dealt with in the planning process.

It was agreed to give "in-principle" approval for the car park to be given to the museum, the vote going through by seven votes for and three against.

THE town council car park behind the Guildhall which, subject to planning permission, will be given over to Lyme Regis Museum for their extension

Youth club dream comes alive

NEARLY 1,000 people visited the former club for young people in Lyme Regis on Saturday in support of efforts to establish a new youth club for the town.

Organisers were over-

By Philip Evans

whelmed with the numbers attending the open day and by the support for the project which will see a partnership between the local community, Dorset County Youth Service and the Woodroffe School.

And they were delighted with the public's choice of name for the new club - 'The Hub' - chosen by ballot from dozens of suggestions that he been put forward.

The open day was also a financial success, raising around £1,000 towards the cost of renovating the Church Street premises.

Enthusiasm

The event was co-ordinated by project leader Fran Williams and this is how she will remember the day:

"Starting at 9am a steady stream of people were already arriving lured by the smell fresh coffee and bacon wafting up Church Street and full of enthusiasm for a new community resource in the heart of their town.

"The balloons and bunting outside the place cheered it up and made you want to go inside. By 12 noon the old building was a hive of activity and discussion, and finally at 6pm the remaining groups of young people that couldn't tear themselves away sat on the stairs of the old boys' club and watched on as the Lyme Town Mayor, Michaela Ellis, announced 'The Hub' was the new name selected by the community, chosen from an original list of 124 suggestions. By close of play the team estimated around 1,000 people aged 0 to 90 years old had passed through those doors that have been tightly shut for so long.

"Throughout the day the place buzzed with a new life, so much hope had been expressed, by the end the open day team were exhausted but thrilled by what they had seen and heard.

"As you walked around the building there was no getting away from the fact that the old church hall needs work, there is damp and crumbling walls everywhere with water pouring in through the roof when it rains, it's cold, there's no heating, but on this day it didn't matter. This was one very special and important occasion, one that many people have been waiting for.

"Families with small kids and young people were piling in to see what all the fuss was about; you could hear them saying, 'its so big', 'its so fun' and 'we can run around' and this was before the giant bungee run began. From 12 noon to 4pm the queue of young people from three to 18 years was relentless- racing and bouncing they announced a new era had begun. There was a continuous flow of people from the older generation, too, people who had memories to share and stories to tell about the place in their time or how they or their friends ran it for young people 10, 20 or 30 years ago.

"Lyme Regis Development Trust, the Woodroffe School and the Youth Service along with volunteers welcomed everybody in. 'I feel like I am a part of it,' somebody said. Town councillors were spotted throughout the day and were invited to share their ideas about how the space could be used. Every room was full of people thinking about the enormous potential of such a unique place.

"Something else that was really noticeable about this event was that everywhere you looked there were young people, taking part, helping or engaged in some way, working in the kitchen with the staff from InSPARation and volunteers; they were there at the door to welcome you on arrival as well as organising activities like the group of year 10 students from Woodroffe who covered a wall in dreams and St Michael's headteacher and students who organised a parachute game, young musicians played next to the parent, grandparent and great grandparent fundraisers selling bric-a-brac with home-made cakes, hair braiding and face painting. Community youth groups were there, too, with representatives from the new youth group who are being consulted about the development, B Sharp, Lyme Youth Theatre, and the Junior Band, too many to mention but everybody pulled together.

"One girl at the end (I missed her name) said 'it's so fun, it's the best day ever'. I overheard parents saying 'it's amazing - somewhere for them to let off steam'. People were keen to book space immediately for events and make their plans. The people of Lyme as ever were queuing up to offer their help, expertise and skills.

"Just when it seemed it couldn't get any better the volunteer group announced together with a 'friends' table they had raised £443 during the day, added to a very generous donation of £500 it took the total raised almost to the £1,000 mark- Wow! There is so much support and good will for this project.

"It was a dream and now it really seems possible, a great collaboration, a school, a youth service and a community that proved it could work together on Saturday.

"Now the management team need to press on with the big job they have in hand of finding the very serious financial resources they need to make 'The Hub' the centre of opportunity that has long been waited for."

MY TURN NEXT: Youngsters queue for the popular bungee run at the open day

THE next fundraising night for The Hub will be a fancy dress night at the Power Boat Club on Saturday, February 5th (8pm to midnight). The theme will be "fabulous and outrageous" with music by T.O.G. and the Wheels of Steel. Tickets will cost £4 if bought in advance (available from LymeNet and Alice's Bear Shop in Broad Street) and £5 on the door. This is an 18 plus event so ID will be required

Letter to the Editor

Can we now have the remaining funds?

■ LAST Saturday January 16th must be a marker in the annals of Lyme Regis.

Hundreds of people, young and old, came, looked and celebrated the creation of 'The Hub'. Many sheets of ideas for the future of the space were generated by enthusiastic local people.

The community was well represented by the Mayor and many of our town councillors, but noticeable by their absence were the two councillors who are also trustees of the former club for young people.

Perhaps, now that the enthusiasm for the new club is evident all the trustees of the former club for young people would consider transferring all the remaining funds in their care, making a positive contribution to the future prosperity of the new venture by Dorset County Council youth service, the Woodroffe School, Lyme Regis Town Council and the Lyme Regis Development Trust and the many other local supporters.

John gets a tap on the head at

PRIZEWINNERS at the annual dinner of the RNLI in Lyme Regis are used to bizarre awards such as the Bent Propeller Trophy, so deservedly won this year by helmsman Dave Street.

But one of the youngest lifeboatmen in the town, 20-year-old John Gage, became the proud winner of a brand new accolade – a tap on the head, at last Friday's Lifeboat Awards dinner at Lyme Regis Golf Club.

John's prize – a hard hat with a bathroom tap neatly plumbed in – was well deserved.

During one 'shout' last year John arrived breathless in the operations room at the lifeboat station hoping to join the crew aboard the lifeboat Pearl of Dorset. But something suddenly it dawned on him: "Oh dear," he yelled, "I've left the bath tap running at home."

That was the end of John's 'shout' as he turned a pale shade of red and headed for home to avoid a flood.

The award was presented to worthy winner John by crew colleague Martin Croad.

John said: "It won't fit on the mantelpiece, so I think I'll keep my prize in the bathroom where it belongs."

Presentations included awards for the best attendance to Jon Broome and Mark Gage and Cobb Arms landlord John McClements who won a caption competition.

Big year for sailing club

THERE'S no better sight than driving down over the hill into Lyme and seeing the sailing boats bobbing about in the Bay.

Now I'm no sailor - I was once sick on the Woolwich ferry and that's pulled across on chains! - but I've always been a big admirer of the Sailing Club, one of the town's oldest and most respected sporting organisations.

This year, the club celebrates its 90th anniversary, appropriately during the year designated to celebrate Lyme's maritime history.

The sailing club was formed in January 1921 by a small group of enthusiasts with the object of encouraging amateur sailing.

Since then they have been a constant presence at The Cobb, providing excellent facilities and tuition

Lyme Matters

by Philip Evans

for sailors of all ages coupled with enjoyable social occasions.

For many years the club was based in the iconic building on The Cobb but moved to more modern and suitable premises behind the Cobb Arms in the late 1990s.

Throughout the year they stage a varied programme of racing events and have also brought much valued publicity to Lyme by staging national championships and for members' national sailing honours.

Family connections run strongly throughout the club, especially the Wiscombes whose name is synonymous with sailing in Lyme.

There's always been a misconception in Lyme that sailing is only for the toffs. But nothing could be further from the truth and the club has a wonderful record of introducing generations of young people to the sport through their youth policy and has gained RYA Champion Club status on the strength of its youth section.

The sailing club also has a reputation for having a good time and there will surely be some memorable celebrations during this their 90th year - no more so I suspect than at their annual dinner at the clubhouse on February 19th.

□ GREAT sadness among the young mothers of Lyme, not to mention dismay, that the pre-school is closing down in February.

With no private facility in Lyme, it means that there will be no provision for pre-school children in the town for the first time for many years. That is not a situation that can be allowed to continue.

Regretfully, despite a great deal of effort, the existing pre-school, which meets at the Sure Start centre in King's Way, has not been able to meet the strict standards demanded by Dorset County Council.

I understand that discussions have started in a bid for an alternative facility to replace the pre-school. We can only hope that these will be successful.

Who will stand and who will not

THERE'S much conjecture in the town over which town councillors will be standing down at the May elections.

To date, Ken Meech is the only one to publicly declare his hand, although I understand that Pete Williams and David Cozens MBE are unlikely to be putting their names forward again.

There was a rumour that David had changed his mind and was planning to seek another term but he told me categorically last week that he is not standing again and he did not know where the rumours to the contrary stemmed from.

Of course, others may decide not to stand between now and May but it would seem that 11 of the existing 14 councillors will contest the election.

I know of at least five other candidates who intend to offer their services so it would seem we could have at least 16 names on the ballot paper, possibly more, and therefore the possibility of existing members losing their seats.

That's a healthy position and indicates there is still an enthusiasm for local government in Lyme. Hopefully it will also encourage a good turn-out at the polls.

EVENT OF THE WEEK...

THE people of Lyme were given their first opportunity since 2006 to see inside the club for young people on Saturday - and nearly 1,000 of them chose to do so. That was the number that turned out for the open day, far exceeding expectations.

The event, which opened with bacon butties at 9 am and went on until 6 pm, was a brilliant success, culminating in the choosing of a new name for the Church Street premises. From now on the new youth club will be known as The Hub, the name chosen from dozens of suggestions by the public.

The idea of the open day was to give the people of Lyme, and especially the youngsters, the chance to have their say in how the club should be run in the future. But it turned out to be much more than that - it was a real celebration that at long last the town was going to be able to do something for its young citizens.

I popped in several times during the day - brilliantly organised by project leader Fran Williams and her team for various photo opportunities and there was a real buzz around the place.

Most people I spoke to were surprised that the building is not quite the tip that they expected following the county council assessment that it needed £250,000 spent on repairs.

It certainly needs a great deal of work to make it useable on a regular basis but I hope Fran and the action group will be able to get The Hub open in some limited form whilst the important planning for the future and fundraising continues.

New lunch club for over 50s

NATTER over lunch is on the menu at Lyme Regis Baptist Church after the launch of a new club on Friday of last week.

Some 33 people sat down for a two-course meal organised by Bridport-based Local Food Links with help from Magna Housing Association.

The menu was beef casserole with dumplings, potatoes, cabbage, carrots and peas followed by apple crumble and custard.

The new lunch club, which is to be held monthly, is open to anyone over 50 who would like to get together with others over a meal.

Suzie King, Local Food Links' community development worker for older people, said: "We are pleased to be able to help the residents of Lyme set up a new lunch club where they can enjoy a freshly prepared meal made with local ingredients, in the company of friends, old and new."

Local Food Links is a social enterprise that supports local producers and provides hot meals in local schools and nurseries.

Ken Bodycombe, Magna's community development manager, said: "We already have a lunch club in Lyme that we run with Local Food Links at Halletts Court. That will continue and this additional lunch club at the Baptist Church is a good chance for our residents to meet up with other people.

"It's also extremely important for Magna to develop communities by working in partnership with other organisations and people."

The next lunch club at the Baptist Church is on February 11th when the menu will be pork and apple casserole with parsley potatoes and seasonal vegetables followed by apricot brioche pudding. The cost is £5. Future lunches might include guest speakers such as community support officers.

Participants can enjoy a two-course meal for £5. For details of forthcoming lunch clubs get in touch with LymeNet on 01297 444570 or go into Alice's Bear Shop.

'Wonderful' start to new year

LYME Regis Art Group hit the new year running with a spectacular demonstration of wildlife painting by David Hyde.

Born in Hertfordshire in 1947, Mr Hyde has painted since childhood, developing a love of wildlife from the countryside of his childhood. In 1982, he gave up his career in computer programming and banking to paint full time and has exhibited with major societies and art galleries in cities across the country including The Mall Gallery and Christies in London.

In this demonstration, Mr Hyde took members through the painting of a wolf, from the earliest drawing to the finished product. He used soft-bodied acrylic paint, mainly Liquidex, and exploited the quick drying attribute of this media to apply glazes and washes to build up his painting in subtle layers. He showed how to block in the darker areas on the sides of the face and the coat using a blue-grey colour, always painting in the direction of the fur growth. As soon as these areas were dry, he over-painted them with diluted white gesso using a very fine brush to paint in the fur strands and taking care to show the individual hairs growing in the right places.

This white over-layer, known as "the death mask", is also used in human portraiture and allows the dark under-layer to show through in places for dramatic effect. At this point, the eyes were painted in with orange and left to dry whilst washes of transparent burnt and raw sienna were swept over the dried white mask to add colour to the fur. The pupils and nose were painted in black with blue and white highlights and transparent burnt umber washed over the orange eyes.

Mr Hyde then put in the eye catch-lights and strengthened both highlights and dark shadow areas to bring greater depth to the picture. In just over two hours, the finished painting stared warily back at an audience held absolutely spellbound by the skill of its painter and the deceptive simplicity of his technique.

Members felt this was a truly wonderful start to their 2011 programme.

The next meeting will be in Woodmead Halls, at 2pm, on January 25th for a critique by the well known and very popular Robert Julier. Visitors and new members are always welcome. ## Strawberry Field may still end up being used as playing area

TOWN councillors in Lyme Regis have not given up hope of the Strawberry Field being used for recreational purposes in the future.

Lyme Regis Town Council originally purchased the 11-acre site in Charmouth Road from local landowner Cliff Powley for a new home for Lyme Regis Football Club.

But the £1 million project to create two full-size football pitches, a clubhouse and a floodlit multi-use games area ran into planning difficulties and was eventually abandoned.

The council have since created a pitch and putt course on the top of the field but their efforts to provide 26 temporary allotments on the lower area also ran into difficulties and had to be shelved.

The future use of the Strawberry Field was included on the agenda of last week's meeting of the Strategy and Policy Committee following a request from resident Terry O'Grady.

By Philip Evans

Committee chairman Owen Lovell reminded councillors that at the moment they had the pitch and putt on the top of the field and a woodland area at the bottom.

He still felt the site was of financial benefit to the town council and that it could be used for some form of recreation in the future.

At the moment they only had a small income from the pitch and putt but it was a start.

New council

Councillor Lorna Jenkin thought discussion on the future of the Strawberry Field should be left to the new council which would be elected in May.

Commented Councillor Lovell: "If the new council comes in and decides they want to sell it, that is down to them."

Councillor Daryl Turner asked whether the council paid for the park and ride land opposite the Strawberry Field. He was informed that no payment was made for this land.

Councillor Lucy Campbell thought the council should investigate future uses for the land.

Councillor Lovell said it had always been open for councillors and the public to come up with ideas.

He told members: "Sporting facilities are still lacking in this town but there is no money to provide pitches up there."

"I would like to see some form of multi-use facilities up there for future generations."

Councillor Sally Holman said they should not do anything with the land that would prejudice any sporting use in the future.

Councillor Lovell concluded: "I still hope one day to have a useful play area up there for the town."

◆ Mr Powley has offered to buy the land back from the council for sporting use.

School raises £600 to support air ambulance

CHRISTMAS fundraising efforts at Mrs Ethelston's Primary School gave Devon Air Ambulance a boost last week.

The Uplyme school raised almost £600 by selling Christmas stars and through collections and ticket sales at their nativity productions.

Air ambulance education officer, Piers Le Cheminant, visited the school last week to thank pupils and parents for their efforts.

He then presented certificates and gave a talk on how the money would be spent before visiting classrooms to help pupils with their "People who help us" project.

He said: "Mrs Ethelston's school in Uplyme has been a really great supporter of the air ambulance over the years we have been operating and I understand they have given us the money that they raised through various Christmas activities.

"They have raised nearly £600 which is a very large sum for a primary school and I'm very pleased to have a chance to come along and say thank you to them in person."

Acting headteacher Mrs Crafter added: "It's the children's choice and it's a charity that's very close to the hearts of all the people who live in this area. We often see the air ambulance land on our field and it is something that is very meaningful to the children.

"It's a fantastic cause that we really appreciate as a local community."

Not 'empire building' but a very necessary source of funding

I'M writing to help clarify the situation regarding InSPARation and the recently purchased Lyme Regis Club for Young People building, following views expressed in the paper recently about the sale of the club to fund the CFYP refurbishment.

I am a member of the InSPARation management committee, which operates independently under the banner of Lyme Regis Development Trust and includes youth workers from Dorset County Council Youth and Community Service, and members of the local community amongst others. The committee's main concern is the best provision of youthwork services in Lyme Regis; currently this provision is at the 17/18 Church Street building, a building set aside for the youth of Lyme Regis by LRDT.

We met immediately following the purchase of the former Club for Young People building earlier this year with the LRDT trustees to discuss how InSPARation could support the refurbishment of the building.

It was decided that, when the building was fit, the services provided in InSPARation should be transferred to the LRCFYP building, and 17/18

Church Street kept and used as a means of generating revenue to support the long-term provision of youth work at the LRCFYP building.

This would be through rent from the existing flat above InSPARation, and from a possible change of use for the café premises into perhaps a shop, or another flat, exact details yet to be confirmed.

In the current economic climate of cuts, the key concern thing for the young people of Lyme Regis is continuity of provision of youthwork. The InSPARation building is a massive asset for the young people and revenue it can generate to support youthwork in Lyme Regis is vital to that continuity, and would safeguard the use of the LRCFYP once refurbished.

There have been accusations of "empire building" levelled at LRDT's acquisitions of buildings, but in this instance the buildings belong to the young people of Lyme Regis, the LRDT being the enablers of their use.

As a community we have a lot to do to get the LRCFYP building up-to-scratch.

We need to encourage tourists, not resent them

I NOTE your article on page 10 of Wednesday, January 12th, with a photo of the overflowing glass recycling bank at Holmbush Car Park and comment "a resident who lives nearby puts the blame firmly on second home owners and those who rent cottages over the Christmas period".

Although most of my dues are paid to East Devon District Council I also contribute to West Dorset District Council and have private rubbish contractors. However, as I have a self catering accommodation and am a member of the town's Hotel Association with some 13 years in the accommodation business I feel able to comment on the article.

Whatever makes the local resident quoted imagine that second home owners and holiday cottage hirers are the culprits for the overflowing bins?

Holiday cottage owners that I am in regular contact with in the immediate locality take the disposal of their rubbish very seriously indeed. Despite paying business rates many live in fear of the "bin mafia" often resorting to hand sorting guests' rubbish in order that it is separated correctly and put out on the correct day as change over days are invariably a Friday or Saturday.

My colleagues give their guests very clear instructions regarding what to do with their rubbish which are often written, verbal and included in their terms and conditions of cottage rental agreements.

There seems to me, being a true born and bred local, that there is a chill wind of resentment towards tourism, incomers and second home owners from some so called "locals" creeping through the area which manifests itself in articles such as this.

I come across it in other areas of the town and don't like it at all. This apparent hostility is, in my opinion, quite unjustified and perhaps these griping old dinosaurs ought to wake up and smell the recession.

It is a reality that Lyme Regis is a well known holiday destination and tourism encourages much needed employment and brings income to the area.

JOY RAYMOND
Raymonds Hill

It's not always the council that's to blame - people make their own mess

YOUR picture last week of the disgusting mess around the recycling area in Holmbush Car Park did not portray an unusual occurrence.

Not only is this irresponsible and selfish behaviour frequent, but locals as well as holidaymakers are the culprits.

I happen to live near this site and have seen people not only dumping waste around the bins but ignoring the instructions not to put certain items in particular bins.

It says paper and cardboard only on one so they sling in their plastic bags full of paper. There is everything imaginable in the plastic bottles receptacle. And people use the litter bin for fly tipping when requested not to.

And as for those who leave their waste around the bins, don't they realise that the skip lorries do not have any space to put the excess?

Seagulls and rats have a field day on this site.

Answer; if they are full, take it home and return another time or is that too simple?

The council gets a lot of stick for alleged failings but just as in the case of irresponsible dog walkers allowing their pets to foul the footpaths, the public's behaviour is quite often to blame and very difficult to understand.

And please don't let's always roll out the old cliché about "small minorities"!

NIGEL FORTNAM,
Lyme Regis

7 Reasons Why You Must Make A Will

1. You decide who will receive the benefits from your estate and not the law
2. If you are not married but have a partner your partner will receive nothing unless you make a will
3. If you are divorced, you can decide to leave something to your former partner
4. You can make the best use of allowances to reduce the amount of Inheritance Tax to be paid
5. If you have children, you can nominate who you choose to care for them
6. If you have no surviving relatives, everything could automatically pass to the state
7. You can decide to leave a donation to charity

Arguably everyone over the age of 18 should make a will, but certainly when you have a partner and children become involved, it is absolutely vital.

Please call now to find out more.

Lyme needs its own library

WITH regard to the proposed closure of Lyme Regis Branch Library, this facility, is much used by the residents of Lyme Regis, and is a vital internet access point.

It has already suffered large cuts to opening hours, together with other libraries across Dorset.

Our geographical position in the far west of Dorset means that our access to all support services are limited, and the proposed closure would increase our isolation.

To access our next nearest library, in Bridport, by public transport takes three hours with one hour in Bridport or - if you are able to run - two and a half hours, with five minutes in the library!

Let's get on with the gritting ourselves

I WAS interested to read that the town council is thinking of taking over the task of gritting our roads in bad weather.

Is it at all possible that individual residents who are fit and well could do their own roads if the grit was to hand?

I know that residents in Talbot Road got down to a good bit of gritting, and good for them.

The apathy which is endemic in this country these days is absolutely awful and it just seems that people sit back and expect 'other people' to do the job.

In many countries on the continent it is expected that you grit your area of road and keep your piece of pavement, where pedestrians walk, clear of ice and snow and certainly in Norway and Germany you can get prosecuted if you don't.

The so called Big Society has a long way to go before we can be confident we are doing all we can for our neighbours, especially when the going gets tough!

Perrott Hill

Schools now treat our children as though they are made of china" wrote the author Conn Ig-gulden this autumn. He raised concerns about teachers who worry about organising school trips for fear of litigation, about schools which avoid contact sports and even hesitate over traditional games such as conkers.

It goes without saying that all teachers and parents wish their children to be safe in their school environment but we also have a duty to prepare them for future life where competition, risk and adventure are experienced on a regular basis. Creating an environment where the perceived danger is great, but the actual danger is small is a fine art and one that is still alive here at Perrott Hill. We encourage our children to play in the woods, we play games on a daily basis, we enjoy snowball fights when the weather allows (staff vs pupils being a favourite) and we have a talented and dedicated staff who ensure that these activities can occur with controlled risks. It is no coincidence that the children enjoy themselves, look forward to school and truly wish to learn.

We invest time in teaching manners and the common courtesies which are so often overlooked in the rush of modern-day life. We spend time learning about eye contact, greetings and opening doors; and how important these skills will be as our children inherit the world in which we live.

We endeavour to give our children the opportunity to experience as many different activities as possible for if we cannot do this when they are young, when do we find the time? We strive to find something that each and every child can excel in; be it academic, sporting or artistic and when they achieve their goals the children feel good about themselves, they walk tall and, as a result, their performance improves all aspects of school life.

All this is best summed up by the Registrar of a very well-known public school in a quote from the 2010 Good Schools Guide review: 'the Perrott Hill pupils who come to us have retained the wonder of childhood instead of parading themselves as young adults'. In the words of the Good Schools Guide, Perrott Hill 'is a traditional prep school of the best sort.'

Rob Morse, the Headmaster, warmly invites you to come and visit Perrott Hill and to see for yourself what the school has to offer.

Kingston Maurward College

Kingston Maurward College – On Your Doorstep

Based just outside Dorchester, Kingston Maurward College offers inspiring and challenging education and training opportunities to equip learners with the knowledge and skills to succeed in life and work.

If you have just left school, are bringing up children, a mature student, or just want to try something new, there's a course for everyone. Whether it's full or part time courses, Higher Education or Apprenticeships you're interested in, Course Information sessions take place monthly where you can speak directly with a tutor to help make your decision. Our next one is on the 20th February at 10am.

The college is set in a stunning 750 acre estate complete with a Georgian main building, commercial farm, laboratories, training areas, animal care unit and new £1m purpose built environmental skills centre. Located in the heart of Dorset, our free on-site parking and a subsidised bus service makes travelling to college easy.

Course areas include agriculture, horticulture, outdoor adventure and sports coaching, countryside management, foundation learning, animal care, equine studies, construction, army preparation, IT business and professional, and business administration and finance.

For more details visit www.kmc.ac.uk or call our courses helpline on 01305 215215 for a chat or a prospectus.

Knighton House School

Set in the heart of Dorset and surrounded by thirty acres of beautiful countryside, Knighton House is a unique school with exceptional qualities. Boys and girls 3 - 7 are nurtured in the cosy surroundings of the Orchard Pre-prep, whilst the Prep School offers day and boarding packages to girls 7 - 13.

The traditional, happy atmosphere of the school encourages the children to think, imagine and explore in their daily learning and allows the strength of the individual to shine through.

The excellent standard of music at Knighton House is rarely found in a small prep school and the girls are encouraged to perform with confidence.

As well as the traditional team sports, Knighton House offers sailing and riding. Girls eager to bring their own ponies can do so and for many a real passion develops.

A number of scholarships are available for girls wishing to join Years 3 to 7 in September 2011. Application forms for Academic, Art, Music, Sport, Drama or All Rounder Scholarships should be submitted by Friday 28th January.

Candidates will be invited to spend the day at Knighton House on Thursday 3rd February.

For a Scholarship Pack and/or prospectus, please contact the Admissions Secretary, Dawn Wood, on 01258 452065 or at admissions@knighton-house.co.uk.

Boat Building Academy

Learn Boatbuilding or Woodworking at the Boat Building Academy in Lyme Regis

'The Boat Building Academy on Mon-mouth Beach in Lyme Regis offers inten-sive training in boat building, boat main-tenance/repair and allied skills, as well as woodworking, to people ranging from beginners to professionals. Courses, all of which are intensive and highly practi-cal, last from one day to 38 weeks. The Academy does not undertake commercial work, but offers students on the 38 week course the opportunity to build a boat for themselves as part of the City & Guilds qualification. The Academy is the only place in the world where people can do this. Every type of construction is cov-ered, from traditional and modern wood to plastic and resin infusion. The end of the course is celebrated by launching the boats built into Lyme Regis harbour. The Academy believes in 'doing' not 'talking about doing'; stu-dents on the 8 week 'Woodworking Skills' course design and make a piece of furniture in addition to taking a City

& Guilds qualification. Academy graduates go on to work in every area of the marine industry all over the world.'

Weymouth College

Vocational courses are another route to university

Most people don't realise that universities take other qualifications as entry requirements, not just A Levels. BTEC National Diplomas and Extended Diplomas, some NVQ Level 3 awards including some Apprenticeships and, additionally for mature students, the Access to Higher Education course.

In the academic year 2009/10, 94% of students on vocational courses at Weymouth College who applied to university were offered a place and 112 of them took up their places in September 2010. A few of those students chose to stay at Degree Centre Weymouth for their Higher Education study whilst the others went to universities across the whole of England.

Each vocational course area at Weymouth College is represented by an industry panel so that the students receive the most up-to-date training for their industry. The industry-relevant courses improve their CVs and give them real world knowledge once they begin their first full-time job or start at university.

You can find out more about the range of courses on offer at Weymouth College by calling 01305 761100 or visiting www.weymouth.ac.uk/courses.

Altogether Care

Altogether Care at Home promotes independent living to enable people to remain in their homes. We provide assistance with many aspects of life. We also offer practical support for individuals who wish to remain in their own home during their final months.

We are here to help with simple every day tasks such as maintaining regular daily routines and looking after a home. We can also assist clients on visits to the supermarket or local shops. By supporting people with basic duties, we enable them to remain socially independent.

We provide a professional, caring and conscientious approach at all times. Being a family owned business, we appreciate that everybody is part of a family and deserves individual attention and care.

Altogether Care is recognised by many local doctors and care professionals as one of the best care providers in Dorset and Somerset. Under the Altogether Care banner we provide a range of care services, including care in your own home (live-in care), respite care, residential care (with and without nursing care) and residential dementia care (with or without nursing).

If you, or anybody you know would benefit from learning more about our services, please do pop in and see us at our local office on the Square, Beaminster or contact Marie Ward on 01308 863775 or visit www.altogethercare.co.uk

Help and Care when you need it

Thistlegate House

Thistlegate House is a splendid and most elegant residential care home which offers "possibly the finest residential care in the south west". The Grade II Lutyan inspired "arts and crafts" style property retains the ambience of a fine country residence with its timber beamed ceilings and stone feature fireplace. The large comfortable lounge which is set out in a manner to encourage conversation or privacy as desired, overlooks the formal part of the four acre grounds which boasts many fine trees, terraces, walkways and a delightful sunken garden together with far reaching views of the surrounding countryside across to Lyme bay.

As you enter Thistlegate House the comfortable calm relaxed atmosphere is immediately apparent and welcoming. The accommodation is spacious and tastefully decorated as you would expect of a house of this style. The high quality care is provided by a very experienced professional staff together with the resident proprietors, June Webb and John Corney, who are available to residents and staff alike throughout the day and night which ensures that the very highest standards of care are maintained at all times. The excellent cuisine at Thistlegate House is a very important part of daily life with the highly varied menus being planned by the chefs and June Webb on a daily basis, the elegant dining room provides the ideal setting where the residents receive silver service.

Great emphasis is placed upon achieving a feeling of wellbeing for the residents of Thistlegate House by appreciating their individuality and providing the care that they need in the manner that they require. There are many additional aspects and services available to residents at Thistlegate House. We would be pleased to discuss these, along with the level of care required for yourself, a relative or perhaps a friend and establish exactly how we at Thistlegate House may be of help to you.

For further information please contact

Mrs. June Webb or Mr. John Corney Tel: 01297 560569 or visit our new internet web site www.thistlegatehouse.co.uk

Whitway House

Luxury Residential Care Homes for the Elderly

FARRINGTON Care Homes Ltd have many years experience in caring for the older person, and our aim is to provide a safe and comfortable home in a warm and friendly atmosphere for those no longer able to care for themselves.

Our professional care team, are dedicated to maintaining excellent care standards, directed by our highly qualified head of care at each home.

We cater for convalescent, post operative, medical and terminally ill elderly clients, with a strong emphasis on individual needs, supported by a full GP service, physiotherapist, occupational therapist, chiropodist, optician, and hairdresser.

Social activities are organised on a daily basis such as keep fit, bingo, movement to music and craft should any resident wish to participate. Visitors are welcome at any time and transport is available if required.

Our attractive rooms are all fitted with television and telephone points, and many have en-suite facilities. A full nurse call paging system is offered to provide extra peace of mind. We recognise that continuity is important and so encourage residents to bring personal effects with them.

Particular attention is paid to the quality and variety of our menu, as we are aware of the importance of a well balanced diet in contributing to the quality of a resident's life. We also cater for individual likes, dislikes and special diets. Visitors of residents may be invited to lunch at no extra charge.

Help and Care when you need it

Clarondene

Anyone can dream in January!

We all love the hurly-burly of the Christmas period. Remember the flashing lights, strings of cards with their good wishes, paper-chains we all worked on that kept coming unstuck, crackers with silly jokes, visits followed by noises of wrapping paper? Our decorations this year had to be 'kitten-proof', so the baubles went on glittery string around the ceiling and the tree gleamed with extra lights and tinsel. Our balcony was admired by all who braved the snow and ice of View Road during December.

Now it's over and the decorations are packed away for another year and the walls look so bare. Well, how dull if we can't brighten up the worst of the winter!

So, we decided to leave the garden fairy lights up, many coloured, and twinkling day and night. They cheer up the grey days and fascinate in the rain of the dark evenings at the beginning of the year. Joan's decided to keep the 2 strings of golden baubles I bought when Woolworths closed down, and they cheer her sleepless nights and contrast with the coloured fairy lights she can see in the garden through the partially opened curtains.

We make the best of the dark days and miserable weather together. We've bought endless games and stuff during the sales to amuse us and have dug out the old favourites of Bagatelle, velcro 'dart' board and Table Skittles. We've also discovered 'Bananagrams', based on the idea of individualised Scrabble, but using a better quality of letter tiles and no more waiting ages for your turn and then finding your letter and space gone. You should try it - highly recommended by the young, ageing and elderly alike!

Our Christmas bulbs have all flowered, so the crocus and narcissus are being planted out to naturalise and the giant amaryllis will soon need to 'go to sleep' ready for next year. The garden planted bulbs are poking their heads through already and all the pansies have survived the worst of the weather, even if they are not actually flowering, poor things.

We said goodbye to Pat this month; although we miss her, she chose her time beautifully. We have some Happy Birthdays this month, and especially look forward to lovely Eileen's 4th with us next week. Pop in for tea if you need cheering up, you're always welcome.

▲ Birthdays at Clarondene

Help this winter

Winter isn't everyone's favourite season and there's no doubt that the cold weather can be a worry for those of us later in life. But with a little preparation, and by following some simple suggestions, we can help ourselves stay healthy, safe and as comfortable as possible during these colder months.

Being prepared for the cold weather - which can last for as long as until the end of March - means you are more likely to keep warm this winter. Here's a list of things you can do to help ward off the winter chills:

- Have your heating serviced and chimney swept.
- If you have wood-burning, coal or gas heaters - make sure you have adequate ventilation.
- Check with your energy supplier for further advice to help you with these months.
- Check your water stopcock is working properly.
- Have your electric blanket serviced - this should be done at least every three years.
- Make sure your smoke alarm is working.
- Make sure you claim all the financial support you can to help with heating bills. Your local Age UK/Age Concern can advise you.
- Be sure you have some warm shoes or boots with non-slip soles.
- Keep a mixture of salt and sand handy to put on steps and paths in icy weather.
- Keep simple cold, flu and sore throat remedies to in the house. Your pharmacist can make suggestions and can also advise on how to manage minor illnesses.
- Follow up your GP's invitation to have a flu jab.
- Order repeat prescriptions in plenty of time, particularly if bad weather is forecast.
- Keep basic food items in the cupboard or freezer in case it's too cold to go shopping.
- If you smoke, think about trying to stop.

Lovely Lunches

Lovely Lunches provide a unique service delivering freshly cooked hot meals to people within a 12 mile radius of Bridport. Perfect for anyone requiring a healthy, hot meal to enable them to stay in their own home, or during illness and convalescence. The food is all sourced locally and is freshly cooked each morning before being delivered to customers, hot, in china dishes, all ready to eat. No need for freezers, microwaves or helpers. The delivery drivers get to know their customers and their needs well, and will be able to give each one an accurate delivery time between 12.30 and 1.15. Menus are set fortnightly, with a wide variety of seasonal meals, and care taken for those on special diets.

For more details and for a copy of the menu for the forthcoming fortnight, please phone 01308 459666 and speak to Georgina or Barry.

BRIDPORT Mortgage Centre is the only totally Independent Mortgage Brokers in Bridport. Run by Phill and Sue Morris, with over 25 years industry experience and knowledge.

They offer a professional and friendly, personal service to their clients – whether first time buyers, re-mortgaging or raising capital out of their property. Their Motto is 'Mortgages made easy' and they can help take the hard work out of looking for a mortgage.

Most people start by putting their property on the market and then look for a new home, which is fine but they would recommend that you should establish how much you can afford to borrow, before you go house hunting. This way you can avoid any disappointments and have a clear idea of the property range you can comfortably afford as well as having an agreement in principal available for when you make an offer.

As well as mortgages they also offer various insurances, such as, Buildings & Contents, Life, Critical illness and Mortgage Payment Protection insurance, as well as commercial and liability insurances.

Dorset's premier quality fireplace design company

Stone's Fireplaces is a family run business established in 1876, and Dorset's premier fireplace design company. They can accommodate the needs of all homeowners, and are experts in installation in listed buildings, farmhouses and cottages.

Stone's Fireplaces is a traditional company and is dedicated to offering first class service. They specialise in the supply and installation of woodburning and multifuel stoves, gas fires and fireplaces. Stone's Masonry division create and manufacture beautiful bespoke natural stone fireplaces. All work is carried out by their own in-house expert team of installers.

A new addition to their professional services is Stone's Chimney Solutions, which is a full chimney sweeping and maintenance service. The aim is to ensure their clients are safe, using their fires and stoves correctly, using the correct fuels and maintaining their investment. Stone's work to the highest standards and are approved HETAS engineers and members of NACS (National Association of Chimney Sweeps). This is all important as most insurance companies will no longer pay out for claims unless there is evidence that the chimney has been professionally swept and a valid and current certificate of sweeping has been issued.

Call Stone's today for a quality and professional service that you will be happy to recommend to friends.

Beautiful fashion boutique for 'real' women

Figure Eight located in Antelope Walk Dorchester specialises in fashion for "real" women from sizes 16 to 30.

The shop is the brainchild of proprietor Elaine Keetch, a designer who ran successful businesses in Bath, Wells and Yeovil before relocating to Dorchester.

Elaine explains, "several of my friends were be-moaning the fact that as plus size girls, they were disappointed with the range of day and occasion wear available. I felt that there was a real problem for ladies who were not in the size 8 to 12 range who still needed clothing to suit their lifestyle and I decided to specialise in finding the very best clothes in sizes up to 30".

Since opening in Dorchester the collections have grown, stocking labels from across Europe, Chalou, Sempre Prui, Be The Queen, Rhiona Stone to name a few.

Due to the demand for the collections, Elaine is looking at stocking some ranges from a size 12.

Figure Eight has launched their new website where you can browse the new autumn/winter collections and can be made aware of seasonal promotions and events.

Personal shopping experiences will also soon be available for those who find it difficult to come during shop opening or for a personal shopping experience to share with friends and have fun for an evening.

As always, we also stock a fantastic range of handbags, wraps, jewellery and other accessories whatever your size.

BragaTanga bring their mesmerising folk to Dorset

VIBRANT Cornish quartet BragaTanga returns to rural Dorset by high demand, following their popular Spring and Autumn tours here in 2010.

This quartet present an exotic mix of world folk music, Eastern European gypsy tunes and mesmerising melodies from near and distant lands, and will tour to Buckland Newton Village Hall on Saturday, January 22nd from 7.30pm.

BragaTanga consists of four well-travelled and well-seasoned musicians with considerable musical and theatrical experience, including forming the core of the Eden Project's house band. Frontman Jim Carey was a longstanding Musical Director for Kneehigh, and has also composed music for Miracle Theatre and National Theatre.

The foot-tapping four deliver a gripping performance, taking the audience on a global journey through French waltzes, tango, Finnish polskas, songs from Sicily, Turkey, and Africa delivered with passion and dexterity. Combining their considerable talents and charm, these gentlemen create a wonderfully warm evening of exotic music in an intimate cabaret setting. Not to be missed!

For more details call 01300 345543.

SPECIAL SCREENING OF FATHER OF GIRLS AT ELECTRIC PALACE

Director Karl Howman on hand for talk following Saturday screening

BRITISH film Father Of Girls<sup>15</sup> will get a special screening at Bridport's Electric Palace on Saturday, February 19th, and will be followed by a talk with director Karl Howman.

The film is the long-awaited directing, writing and producing debut of Howman, best known for playing Jacko in TV's 'Brush Strokes' and here working with Ethem Cetintas, a director with whom he's also made commercials. It tells of a single father, Frank (Ray Winstone), whose only daughter, Helen (Lois Winstone), a student living with her boyfriend, dies of an overdose, leaving Frank distraught and on the trail of her secret life.

The screening on Saturday, February 19th starts at 7.30pm, and tickets cost £7.50. Standard Screenings (without Director) shall also be held at 7.30pm on Sunday 20th, Monday 21st and Tuesday 22nd February. To book tickets or for more details call 01308 424901 or visit Bridport Tourist Information Centre.

Tavaziva Dance show at the Corn Exchange

WITH his fantastically exuberant dancers, choreographer and musician Bawren Tavaziva performs an intense double bill at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Friday (January 21st), exploring the idea that there are two sides to every story...through adversity there comes triumph, through pain there comes love, after a storm comes a calm.

The show is a celebration of culture, hardship, agony and joy and demonstrates the impact of black dance choreographer Bawren Tavaziva on contemporary dance in Britain.

Bawren Tavaziva grew up in Harare in Zimbabwe where football, Michael Jackson, and Kung Fu movies provided his artistic inspiration. He practiced the dance styles, karate moves and football skills in the neighbourhood streets where the children gathered. In his teens he joined a dance programme created by The National Ballet targeting talented under-privileged youngsters. It was the start of a dance career where he went on to tour extensively the African sub-continent and Europe and in 2004 he formed Tavaziva Dance.

The show starts at 8pm, and doors open at 7.30pm. There will also be a post-show discussion.

Tickets cost £10, £8 member or £6 for under 18s. A special offer is available on advance ticket bookings - regular tickets cost £9 and under 18s £5. To book please call 01305 266926 or visit www.dorchesterarts.org.uk

Poetry for Pleasure

by Frank McGarry

James Ball Naylor presumably wrote this verse in tribute to his own wife. It is a fine sentiment that many of our fortunate husbands can identify with.

TO HER WHO KEEPS MY DWELLING-PLACE

*I care not if the hour be dawn
Or daylight's close, or whether
The sun shine bright
From morn till night,
In cloudless harvest weather;
One gleam of sunshine from the face
Of her who keeps my dwelling-place,
Is more than all together!*

*What matter if the cold gray clouds
Of winter - yea, what matter! -
Speed far and fast
Before the blast,
And fleecy snowflakes scatter!
One hand-clasp of her heart-warm hand
Will melt the snowdrifts from the land -
And bring the bluebird's chatter!*

*And though each fleeting season bring
Its measured mead of sorrow,
I drink the wine
Of love divine,
And look to her and borrow
A ray of sunshine from the skies*

*That lie within her honest eyes -
And bless the coming morrow!*

THE First Earl of Dorset, Thomas Sackville, died 400 years ago but we are still enjoying his poetry. This verse is included in the National Trust's recently published "Ode to the Countryside" anthology.

AT MIDNIGHT

*Midnight was come, and every vital thing
With sweet sound sleep their weary limbs did rest,
The beasts were still, the little birds that sing,
Now sweetly slept beside their mother's breast,
The old and all well shrouded in their nest;
The waters calm, the cruel seas did cease,
The woods, the fields, and all things held their peace.*

*The golden stars were whirl'd amid their race,
And on the earth did with their twinkling light,
When each thing nestled in his resting-place,
Forget day's pain with pleasure of the night;
The hare had not the greedy hounds in sight,
The fearful deer of death stood not in doubt,
The partridge dreamt not of the falcon's foot.*

FAST forwarding four centuries, this poem by Shirley Curran appeared in the Literary Review in June 2006. If you are a disgruntled granny perhaps it will provoke you into militant action or - maybe more likely - just make you smile.

tled granny perhaps it will provoke you into militant action or - maybe more likely - just make you smile.

HELL'S GRANNIES

*Rise! Throw away the zimmers and rebel!
Disrupt the House of Commons!
Make life Hell!*

With brollies armed and handbags, fight the cause

*Of abrogating patronising laws.
No namby-pamby free bus pass for us
'In off-peak hours'. No! We'll hijack the bus.
In perfect wheel-chair phalanx we shall barge
Into discussions of each standing charge
And reprimand misguided milksop youth
And browbeat them until they grasp the truth
That we, Hell's Grannies are the nation's power:
Age sixty ushers in our finest hour.*

*We'll brandish walking sticks and rage and rant
And Hector public servants till they grant
Free winter warmth and raise our pensions too,
Die? That's the very last thing we shall do!*

Top comedy trio at the Marine Theatre

THE Marine Theatre is hosting a new comedy night this Friday (January 21st), featuring three of the UK's best comedians; John Warburton, Andy Watson and Chris Brooker (MC).

JOHN WARBURTON

John's friendly, yet cutting, routine lends itself to a wide range of clubs and audiences. His set combines one-liners, cutting observational comedy, surreal flights of fantasy and the occasional brilliantly written song.

Fresh back from headlining shows at the inaugural Dubai Comedy Festival for which Time Out gave him FIVE stars (well, they were fezz's actually) and labelled him: "definitely one of the fest's best." Not a bad accolade on a roster which included Perrier nominated Jason Mannford, Phil Nichol and Stephen K Amos.

"Warburton is much in demand at the moment. His set bursts with clever wordplay and smart-Alec asides."

- TIME OUT

"Rock'n'roll and very, very funny," - LOADED
"Cracking jokes non-stop... a comedian who is fast making a name for himself with his confidence, intelligence and wit." - GORDON BARR, THE EVENING CHRONICLE, NEWCASTLE

ANDY WATSON

This quick-fire act immediately grabs audiences with his sharp one-liners and leaves them in hysterics with his playful style and physical comedy skills. In October 2005 he won the City Life North West Comedian of the Year Award (past winners of the prestigious award have included Peter Kay, Caroline Aherne, Dave Spikey and Jason Manford). In 2008 he supported Paddy McGuinness on his 'Plus You!' Tour, for 29 dates.

"An irresistible, infectious style that had the audience rapt from the get-go." CHORTLE

"Like a force of nature he grasped the crowd's attention and left them in hysterics." CITY LIFE

"His gags were superb and the performance element to his set was wholly original and uproariously funny. Definitely one to watch." THE HINCKLEY TIMES

CHRIS BROOKER (MC)

One of comedy's heavy hitters, Chris Brooker's infectious energy and enthusiasm sweeps through a room like an irresistible force. Chris' combination of hilarious, original material and inspired improvisation means that you will never see the same routine twice. Immensely likeable, there's no doubting his ability to win over any crowd and drag them along for the ride.

Chris has forged himself a fine reputation as a stand-up comedian, in particular as one of the country's best up and coming comperes. A member of ComedySportz, the resident improv troupe at Manchester's Comedy Store, Chris made history when he became the first British performer to be chosen for the All Star team at the annual World Championships in Portland, Oregon. A veteran performer in the UK, Chris has also performed in the U.S. and Canada, most famously when he was invited to participate in the Yuk Yuk's "Great Canadian Laugh Off" in Toronto.

A regular on the radio waves in and around Manchester, Chris also has three full length solo shows under his belt. "Path Of Least Resistance", "Please Hold, Chris Brooker Knows You Are Waiting" and "Unstoppable" have all received widespread acclaim from critics and audiences alike.

"Very funny, very quick... On the spot humour." BBC

"A fitting finale, had the audience in stitches." STUDENTONLINE

"The best act of the night, his quick wit silencing hecklers and getting plenty of laughs." MANCHESTER EVENING NEWS

The show starts at 8.30pm on Friday (January 21st) at the Marine Theatre. To pre-order tickets call 01297 442138.

Portman stars in the stunning Black SwanBLACK SWAN <sup>15</sup>

Nina (Natalie Portman) is a ballerina in a New York City ballet company whose life, like all those in her profession, is completely consumed with dance. She lives with her obsessive former ballerina mother Erica (Barbara Hershey) who exerts a suffocating control over her. When artistic director Thomas Leroy (Vincent Cassel) decides to replace prima ballerina Beth MacIntyre (Winona Ryder) for the opening production of their new season, Swan Lake, Nina is his first choice. But Nina has competition: a new dancer, Lily (Mila Kunis), who impresses Leroy as well. Swan Lake requires a dancer who can play both the White Swan with innocence and grace, and the Black Swan, who represents guile and sensuality. Nina fits the White Swan role perfectly but Lily is the personification of the Black Swan. As the two young dancers expand their rivalry into a twisted friendship, Nina begins to get more in touch with her dark side - a recklessness that threatens to destroy her.

THE DILEMMA <sup>12A</sup>

A man finds out that what you don't say to a friend is just as important as what you do in this story of how far you can bend a brotherly bond before it snaps. Since college, confirmed bachelor Ronny (Vince Vaughn) and happily married Nick (Kevin James) have been through thick and thin. Now partners in an auto design firm, the two pals are vying to land a dream project that would launch their company. Ronny's girlfriend, Beth (Jennifer Connelly), and Nick's wife, Geneva (Winona Ryder), are by their sides. But Ronny's world is turned upside down when he inadvertently sees Geneva out with another man and makes it his mission to get answers. As the amateur investigation dissolves into mayhem, he learns that Nick has a few secrets of his own. Now, with the clock ticking and pressure mounting on the biggest presentation of their careers, Ronny must decide what will happen if he reveals the truth to his best friend.

GET LOW <sup>12A</sup>

Felix Bush (Robert Duvall) is a hermit who has no regard for anybody in the town or anyone who wants to get to know him. But one day, after a fellow old hermit has died and he hears people in the town telling stories about him, he decides that he needs to get these stories out in the public. He recruits Frank (Bill Murray) the local funeral home director to host his own funeral. This way he can hear what everyone is saying about him, and get the truth to his past out in the open. But will he be able to get anybody to come? And will he be able to reveal his secrets?

MORNING GLORY <sup>12A</sup>

Becky (Rachel McAdams) is a hard-working morning TV show producer, or at least she was until she got fired. Desperate to get a job, she finally gets an interview with Jerry (Jeff Goldblum) - who is desperate to hire a producer for the struggling show "Daybreak". Becky accepts the job and it proves to be more difficult than even she might be able to handle. She has to fire the sexist co-host, then try to convince egotistical news reporter, Mike Pomeroy (Harrison Ford), to take the job, and then try and get him to actually do the job, properly. And she has to do this while falling for handsome Adam (Patrick Wilson), and trying to save the show from plummeting ratings. Will Becky be able to hold on to her dream job and her sanity?

Also released this week is the stunning British coming of age drama NEDS <sup>18</sup>, by Peter Mullan. The film is a raw, bleak look at 70s Glasgow as Mullan remembers it from his youth, particularly focusing on Neds (Non Educated Delinquents - a Scottish slang term referring to the Scottish equivalent of a 'chav').

Portuguese artist displays 'war rug' at Bridport Arts Centre

DOES a single object create an exhibition? In this instance, Bridport Arts Centre's Allsop Gallery features the first showing of artist Carlos Noronha Feio's latest and giant 'war rug' - so large it commands the entire gallery leaving only room for an audience, and this dramatic work certainly deserves a thoughtful one.

Carlos Noronha Feio is an artist who weaves his own national identity with others he encounters. His work is engaged with the points at which geography and migration meet, where different cultures collide, interfere and impose their own imperatives on each other.

War rugs have a long history in Afghanistan, revived significantly at the time of the Russian occupation a generation ago. As with other rugs designed and commissioned by Carlos, he works with carpet weavers in Arrailos in his native Portugal. They work only using local traditional techniques and methods of production. These express great similarities with those found in Afghanistan, both arising from the influences of the ancient Moorish culture they hold in common.

The exhibition programme includes talks, significantly a conversation between the artist and Michael Petry, curator of the Royal Academy Schools gallery and co-author of 'Installation art in the new Millennium'. His forthcoming book 'The art of not making - the artist, artisan relationship' from Thames & Hudson referencing Carlos's work, is being published in April.

A performance of a collaboration with musician Ergo Phizmiz will add a soundtrack to the several layers of meanings in the rug. Details of both events will be on the Arts Centre website.

The exhibition includes opportunities for group visits both discussion based, or practical, interactive sessions. If you think your school, community group or society would be interested in this, please contact the Box Office at Bridport Arts Centre.

The exhibition has been made possible with a grant from the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation, UK.

Wedding Fayre at the Alexandra Hotel and Restaurant - a 'most romantic waterside hotel'

FOLLOWING the success of their first Wedding Fayre last year the Alexandra is now putting on another show!

This is the perfect opportunity to see not only what the Alexandra has to offer but there will be exhibitors from the local area such as florists, photographers, cake makers, wine supplier, bridal wear designer and more.

Dorset's breathtaking coastline provides a naturally beautiful backdrop to weddings at the award-winning Alexandra Hotel in Lyme Regis, which was recently voted the 'Most Excellent Waterside Hotel 2011' by Conde Nast Johansens. In each area of the Hotel, including the latest wedding venue perched in a romantic garden setting - the Lookout Tower - there are breathtaking views of the historic Cobb harbour, Lyme Bay and the Jurassic Coastline.

Licensed for civil ceremonies, the Alexandra has a wonderful, intimate atmosphere for small weddings and for larger gatherings of up to 100 guests, the Wedding Breakfast can be enjoyed in the Conservatory or Alexandra Restaurant. However many guests are invited, they will find the Hotel's sweeping lawns the perfect place to gather for Champagne, Canapés, kisses and wonderful photographs that capture the very special atmosphere of the day.

If you're planning your Wedding, come and see what this fabulous Lyme Regis hotel and local Wedding suppliers can bring to you. Your Wedding day is one of the most important days of your life, so take your time to relax, perhaps walk around the beautiful grounds, look at the breathtaking views from the bridal suit, restaurants, garden and deck. Sit back and soak up the ambience of this elegant grade II listed building and see if the Alexandra is right for you.

Everyone is welcome, information will be on display and our restaurants and show bedrooms will be available for all to view. Tea and coffee will be available in our conservatory restaurant throughout the day.

The Alexandra Hotel and Restaurant Wedding Fayre is held on Sunday, 23rd January 2011 from 11am-4pm. For more details visit www.hotelalexandra.co.uk/weddings, call 01297 442010 or email events@hotelalexandra.co.uk

View 2 TV

Piers can interview Lily on one charity condition...

LILY GIVES PIERS AN ULTIMATUM | LILY Allen has snubbed Piers Morgan's offer of appearing on his Life Stories series, unless he gives £1 million to charity.

The Smile star, who has had two miscarriages, told Piers she wanted him to give the money to a stillbirth and neo-natal death charity that supports bereaved parents.

Writing on Twitter, she said: "i'd do it for a million for SANDS. money, mouth?????????????????"

Piers, whose guests on the ITV1 interview show have included Gordon Brown, Cheryl Cole and Simon Cowell, told Lily: "I will get ITV to make substantial five figure donation to your charity for the interview".

But the singer told him: "Those are my terms. I've got no interest in coming on your show, you've been asking me for years."

She revealed she had lost her second child in November and asked her two million followers on the social networking website to "say a little prayer".

Lily previously had a miscarriage when she was dating Chemical Brothers star Ed Simons in 2008.

Former Daily Mirror editor Piers is about to launch a new chatshow, which sees him take over from CNN legend Larry King, in the United States.

TWITTER CHALLENGE
| Lily Allen has told Piers Morgan to put his money where his mouth is, for charity, if he wants an interview

DOWNTON BACK NEXT CHRISTMAS | Julian Fellowes' hit TV show Downton Abbey is to return with a new series for Christmas 2011, it has been announced.

The costume drama about the day-to-day life of a wealthy country family and their servants won legions of fans when it debuted last year, and viewers have been promised it will come back with an eight-part second series in the autumn.

Laura Mackie, director of drama at ITV said: "Julian has come up with a fantastic story that will give the audience the chance to enjoy the experience of the festive season at Downton Abbey. We're delighted to have this as part of our Christmas schedule for December 2011."

The first series, starring Hugh Bonneville as the Earl of Grantham and Maggie Smith as Dowager Countess of Grantham, ended with the outbreak of the First World War. The second series could see the entire master/servant dynamic turned upside down as the characters sign up to fight alongside one another to serve their country.

Downton Abbey premiered on ITV1 last September with an audience of 11.8 million and its finale on November 7 was watched by 12.8 million viewers, making episode seven the biggest audience for an episode of a new drama series on any channel since 2003.

The show has just opened the Classic season on the Masterpiece channel in the US, with early figures revealing that it has doubled the season's average audience, reaching 6.7 million people and making it the highest-rated show Masterpiece has transmitted in recent years.

RUTH RESIGNED TO SUPPORT ROLES | Ruth Jones has revealed she is resigned to playing supporting roles.

The Gavin and Stacey actress is about to star in BBC4 drama Hattie about the life of Carry On actress Hattie Jacques, but told The Independent she doesn't expect many lead roles to come her way.

Ruth said: "My ambition is always to play parts that are different and are a challenge. However you have to be realistic and I know that I'm never going to play Juliet... I will probably always play the nurse."

The Welsh actress and writer had her breakthrough in ITV series Fat Friends about a slimming club, and has had supporting roles in comedies Nighty Night and Little Britain, and costume dramas Little Dorrit and Tess of the D'Urbervilles.

She said: "I've been very lucky so far. I can't say people are knocking down my doors to play overweight Barry girls, because they're not."

But Ruth is currently working on Stella, a comedy for Sky she has written in and will star in about a 40-something mother, which she describes as "an authentic slice of the working-class Welsh valleys".

The award-winning comedy writer confessed: "All my life I've had this belief that other people are better than me. It's only now that I'm starting to realise I'm alright, that I'm not bad at what I do."

6.0: How Heap and Pebble Took on the World

WINNER of the Arches Brick Award and nominated for a Total Theatre Award at the Edinburgh Festival 2009, 6.0: How Heap and Pebble Took on the World and Won is a prescient tale for our times, touching on pertinent themes of ecology and sport, taking place at Weymouth College on Wednesday, February 16th.

Combining physical theatre, clowning and audience interaction, this is a delicate, funny, and touching exploration of how we cope with loss, on a human and on an environmental scale. It is the story of Heap Krusiak and Pebble Adverati, the greatest ice dancers of all time, who refuse to be defeated by a world that has run out of ice: instead they defiantly don their skates and perform their free dance, this time on a wooden floor, in theatres across the country.

6.0: How Heap and Pebble Took on the World and Won was developed at the Battersea Arts Centre. It previewed at Latitude Festival as a Pick of the Pleasance, before premiering at the Edinburgh Fringe in August 2009 and will tour the UK in Autumn 2010.

The performance at Weymouth College, Cranford Avenue, Weymouth takes place on Wednesday, February 16th from 7.30pm. Tickets cost £11 (adults), £9 (Concs.) and free for season ticket holders. For more details or bookings call 01305 208 702.

TEDDY THOMPSON COMES TO BRIDPORT

TEDDY Thompson is a singer songwriter with a stunning voice and a huge amount of talent, but then again being the son of folk-rock legends Richard and Linda Thompson, he was always going to be...

Teddy developed his musical drive early in life and launched his first band while still in his early teens. By the time he released his self-titled solo debut in 2000, he'd served a stint in his father's touring band and contributed guitar and vocals to his dad's albums You? Me? Us? and Mock Tudor. He subsequently co-produced and played on his mother's 2002 comeback disc Fashionably Late, and toured as a member of Rosanne Cash's backing band.

He regularly duets with friends and fellow musicians Rufus and Martha Wainwright as well as appearing on Jools Holland's Late.

A truly talented singer-songwriter with an incredible voice, don't miss Teddy Thompson at The Electric Palace on Thursday, February 24th, it's going to be sensational.

Tickets are on sale now from Bridport Tourist Info Centre for £14.50

Super Furry Animal for Electric Palace debut

THE ever-eccentric Gruff Rhys, frontman of Super Furry Animals, is back to tour the UK with his third studio album, and his most ambitious yet. 'Hotel Shampoo' (released February 14th) is, like its name, drawn up by inspiration from the mini bottles of shampoo collected during 15 years of frequent hotel visits and the people met over the last 15 years of performing.

Adding to an expansive range of creative work, which has seen two previous solo albums, the Welsh-sung 'Yr Atal Genhedlaeth' and 2007's 'Candylion', the Mercury nominated project - Neon Neon, a number of high profile collaborations with the likes of Gorillaz and Dark Night of the Soul, the Danger Mouse & Sparklehorse LP and finally, an experimental LP with a Brazilian TV repairman! Tony Da Gattorra, titled 'The Terror of Cosmic Loneliness' which goes hand in hand with Gruff's film-making debut 'Seperado'.

Gruff Rhys is at Bridport's Electric Palace on Friday, February 25th 2011. Tickets cost £13.50, and are available from Bridport Tourist Information Centre on 01308 424901, or visit electricpalace.org.uk.

Regency style detached family home with annexe in Charmouth

FORTNAM Smith & Banwell in Charmouth are pleased to present Hazelwood House, a fabulous Regency style detached house built in 1998.

This property benefits from four bedrooms plus a further bedroom within the self contained detached annexe.

The current owners maintain the house beautifully and it is in excellent order throughout.

The pretty south facing garden is a most attractive feature with views towards the cliffs with a sunny conservatory from which to enjoy it. To the front there is gravelled parking and access to the purpose built annexe with its own lounge/kitchenette bedroom and shower room.

Hazelwood would suit a range of requirements such as Bed & Breakfast, elderly dependent relatives or a growing family. (The existing owners operate a successful B&B business)

Briefly Hazelwood House comprises: entrance hall - sitting room - conservatory - dining room - kitchen/breakfast room - utility - cloakroom - master bedroom with en suite shower - three further bedrooms - family bathroom - detached self contained annex - parking - enclosed south facing rear garden.

Hazelwood House is on the market at £529,500 Freehold.

Parcel of land just outside the village of Hawkchurch

WHAT a strange couple of months we have had in the property market! Prior to Christmas, estate agents were wondering what had happened to all the buyers as it was so quiet. However, 2011 has come in like a lion with most of us seeing a great deal more activity than we usually do at this time of year. In speaking to other agents across the country and having received a message today from the National Association of Estate Agents (NAEA), it seems that there has been an unexpected surge - which is a relief for us all! We all wonder how long it will last of course and why it is happening. You can speculate on all sorts of reasons but primarily, we should be thankful.

One of the properties generating the most interest for Gordon & Rumsby at the moment is a parcel of land just outside the East Devon village of Hawkchurch.

The land, amounting to around 4 acres, is situated within a delightful rural location along a small no-through lane in a fairly sheltered spot. It comprises sections of paddock bordered by hedging and trees and several buildings, now disused and some dilapidated. There is road access and 4 entrances from the lane. The land enjoys a sheltered peaceful position but has not been used for some time (possibly up to 15 years). We understand that spring water feeds a drinking trough and a telegraph pole sits in the corner of the ground, which could provide electricity if required. Of the existing buildings, one of the larger timber buildings has collapsed and the other (a former chicken house) is still standing. There is another collapsed building and one (mainly block built) still standing along with a greenhouse.

The guide price is £50,000 and we are requesting that offers be submitted by 26th this month by phone. In view of the demand, we are looking for additional parcels of land to sell in good locations, ideally with some building up to about 5-6 acres.

Please call Gordon & Rumsby for enquiries on 01460 30888.

THORNCOMBE - £318,000

AN attractive and well designed modern house built approximately 11 years ago and situated in a small cul-de-sac in the thriving West Dorset village of Thorncombe.

The generous and bright accommodation comprises 3 bedrooms, the large master bedroom having a re-fitted en-suite shower room, family bathroom, ground floor cloakroom, lounge with wood burning stove and French doors to the garden, well equipped kitchen, separate dining room and utility room.

Outside there are gardens to front and back and a double garage.

Quality flooring has been added to include Axminster carpets and Karndean flooring to bathrooms and kitchen.

This very active village has a community run shop/post office, a primary school in the Woodroffe pyramid, Church, Chapel, playground and very busy village hall with plenty of clubs and associations.

Asking price of £318,000 for more information, please call Gordon & Rumsby on 01460 30888.

Continued growth in used car finance in November

Dealers provided finance for more than 50,000 used cars in November 2010, as the car market continues to return to more 'normal' buying behaviour. This is the message from the Finance & Leasing Association, which published its latest motor finance data today.

The rise in used car finance comes in the same month as an 11 percent fall in the number of new cars being bought by individuals on finance provided through dealerships compared with November 2009. But falling new car sales meant that the proportion of new cars bought using dealer finance over the last 12 months rose to 51.5%.

Commenting on November's motor finance figures, Paul Harrison, Head of Motor Finance, said:

"What our latest figures show is that the car market, following the previous Government's scrappage scheme, is returning to business as usual. Savvy consumers are seeking used cars from dealerships to get value for money.

"And while the new car market has seen a fall in the last quarter, finance sold in showrooms now accounts for more than half of private new car sales. We expect this proportion to continue to rise as the last few months of scrappage-influenced sales drop out of our 12 month average."

Blue-min' tasty VXR joins new-look Corsa range

- Limited edition Corsa VXR Blue joins new Corsa range
- High-spec model with big cost saving on equipment vs. standard car
- Bold styling features complement design refresh from rest of range

HOT on the heels of the new-look Corsa range, the Corsa VXR Blue Edition features new styling details, additional kit as standard and a head-turning paintjob, at a price that'll send its rivals into a spin.

At £19,425 (including 20% VAT), the Corsa VXR Blue undercuts key competitors like the Citroen DS3 R and the Mini Cooper Works by up to £3,600. Included in its price, this limited edition model features Arden Blue metallic paint, 18-inch alloys, dark-tinted glass, bespoke interior air vents and Recaro seats – that equates to a £445 saving compared with the cost of spec'ing a 'standard' Corsa VXR with this kit.

Like other models in the new-look Corsa range, the VXR and VXR Blue sport new 'Eagle-Eye' headlamps and a signature bar across the grille, coloured in blue. But in addition, the VXR gets a more aggressive front end, with deep in-set fog lamps, a wider and more prominent grille and a low, sculpted front spoiler to boost its sporting appeal. Inside, blue detailing can be found throughout, including the stitching on the leather steering-wheel, the interior air-vent colour and the trim on the Recaro seats.

Powered by the lightweight 1.6 Turbo, producing 192PS, this VXR boasts a 0-60mph time of just 6.8 seconds and a top speed of 140mph. An overboost feature increases maximum torque to 260+Nm when the power is needed.

The Corsa VXR Blue comes with lowered sports suspension, uprated brakes and switchable Electronic Stability Programme (ESP), guaranteeing enthusiastic drivers a fine mix of dynamic security and adjustability.

Available to order now, the Corsa VXR Blue will hit dealers late February.

Wheel misalignment could cost UK motorists more than £100 million

RESEARCH by Micheldever/Protyre, the UK's leading independent wholesaler and retailer of tyres, has indicated that tyre/wheel misalignment could cost UK motorists up to £100 million in additional fuel costs alone. Out of alignment wheels require more energy to turn which can increase fuel consumption by 3 to 3.5%. With the price of fuel only likely to rise through 2011 and the increase in VAT this January, Micheldever/Protyre is warning motorists they are burning money and taking unnecessary risks by not ensuring their vehicle's wheels are aligned properly.

Following another harsh winter, misalignment is more likely to develop owing to the increased numbers of potholes created by freezing temperatures and the likelihood of vehicles bumping into curbs due to the slippery road surfaces. The impact resulting from these 'bumps' can knock wheels out of alignment, even damaging suspension components if severe, no matter how old or new the vehicle may be. If a motorist continues to drive the vehicle without the wheels being correctly aligned, they will increase tyre wear, decrease fuel efficiency and negatively affect the handling with the associated safety risks that presents.

According to Micheldever/Protyre retail director Simon Hiorns: "UK roads and repairs have not recovered totally from the snow and freezing winter weather of 2009/10 let alone the recent bout of ultra low temperatures and snow. And it is a fact that potholes tend to appear in the same place as previous road repairs. Potholes pose a very real safety threat to road users as well as spelling premature replacement cost for replacing tyres and possible wheels as well as suspension components."

To help ease the burden of increasing motoring costs, Protyre is offering a free wheel alignment check together with £5 money off wheel alignment voucher to be used should remedial work be required. The vouchers are available for use at anyone of the company's 50 retail outlets over the winter period. The voucher and details of all Protyre's 50 outlets are available from www.protyre.co.uk

Charmouth finally break losing habit

DORSET INTERMEDIATE CUP

Quarter-Final replay
Beaminster 3 Ferndown Sports 2

A LATE winner from Dean Newman crowned a Man-of-the-Match performance and earned Beaminster a place in the semi-finals of the Dorset Intermediate Cup.

In truth the final score line flattered visitors' Ferndown Sports as the Rainbows shook off the seasonal cobwebs in some style.

Beaminster, missing injured skipper Ben Ward, saw early chances strike the woodwork and hooked off the line and were made to pay as Ferndown scored first against the run of play.

But parity was soon restored when centre-back Andy David headed home from a corner. The hosts, looking to add to their 1993-94 success in this competition, deservedly edged ahead before the interval when Sam Crocker rounded off a superb junking run by slotting home.

Top-scorer Newman then put daylight between the sides with his seventh goal in five games and the result looked assured.

But ten minutes from time an injury to Richie Runyard forced a reshuffle and the hosts were caught napping as Ferndown struck a second to force a tense last few minutes.

Beaminster manager Sean Annetts was pleased with his team's performance, he said: "It wasn't as close as the score line suggests. We did miss Ben (Ward), but I dropped Dean (Newman) back into the midfield and he was awesome. Considering the long lay-off I thought we played well."

The Rainbows join Lyme Regis in to-morrows draw along with Normalair RSL from the Yeovil & District League Premier Division and Bournemouth League Division One outfit Ferndown Town Greenfields.

JOHN FOWLER CUP Semi-Final
Drimpton 2 Misterton Reserves 0
(Drimpton disqualified)

DESPITE beating Winsham Reserves 2-0 Drimpton were robbed of their first cup final appearance for seven seasons when manager Lee Drayton realised he had fielded an ineligible player who had played insufficient league games prior to appearing in the semi-final.

As a consequence PSL officials will enforce the same law that saw Lyme Regis Reserves disqualified from a Division One cup final appearance earlier this month.

Sam Caddy and top-scorer Adam Chant scored the goals which ultimately count for nothing, whilst Drayton was impressed by Winsham keeper Martin Allen who kept the score down with some fine saves.

PREMIER

Barrington 1 Perry Street 1

THE points were shared at Shelway Lane. The first half ended goal less before Jamie Roberts put the visitors ahead only for Tom Perry to net a leveller with his seventh goal of the season midway through the period.

Combe Res 1 Misterton 2

MISTERTON earned three valuable points despite playing with 10 men for 75 minutes after referee Bryan Perryman showed Missy player-manager Jak Flatt a straight red card for stamping on an opponent.

The visitors reacted well and took the lead soon after through midfielder Paul Richards.

Tom Vincent equalised on the stroke of half-time but Richards struck again in the 70th minute to lift Misterton up a place to seventh in the table.

Ilminster Res 1 W &amp; M Chinnock 4

ILMINSTER Town Reserves' promising start to the season was shattered by West & Middle Chinnock who recorded their first ever win in their debut season in the Premier Division.

All seemed to be going to plan as the Blues led through a disputed Charlie Rutter goal at the break - with The Chinnocks' thinking Rutter may have been offside.

It mattered not, as Ollie Hutchings leveled and skipper Damian Hart headed the visitors in front before Aaron Langdon stretched the lead to 3-1 on the hour.

Man-of-the-Match Russell Lock rounded things off in the 83rd minute.

Merriott Rovers 2 Lyme Regis 3

WITH the Davey Fort waterlogged this game was switched to Merriott. But the game was in doubt on Friday when Rovers officials discovered that one of their goal frames had been stolen!

A replacement was sourced and the game went ahead. The Seaside's started well but were made to pay for squandering a handful of good chances when Scott Jennings fired Rovers ahead on 20 minutes.

Lyme were all-square ten minutes before the interval when Steve Batey headed home Joel Gostling's header at the near post for his sixth goal of the season.

Leading marksman Julien Simier took his tally to 13 when he fired through a crowded area to put the Seaside's ahead on the hour.

But Merriott fought back to level ten minutes later when Pete Symes capitalized on some confusion amongst the visitors' ranks to pounce on a throw-out by Ashley Caddy.

Lyme were however enjoying plenty of possession and the pressure eventually told when Gostling got on the end of a long cross from Matt Laing to head home at the far post.

After some below par performances, Lyme manager Robin Townsend felt his side, showed signs of improvement, he said: "We've been winning without playing anything like we did last season - it was much better today. I thought Steve Batey just edged out Adam Caddy, Joel Gostling and Joe Bond as MoM."

DIVISION ONE

Charmouth 3 Norton Athletic 2

AFTER a run of 21 winless games the Charmouth faithful finally saw their team record a win a Barrs Lane as Norton Athletic were beaten 3-2.

Dan Rendall crossed for Dan Rumsby to head home the opener. The Norts leveled before the break but another header, this time from Ali Harvey restored the hosts' lead.

Rendall then smashed home a 25-yarder before the visitors netted a late consolation. Top Robins were Rendall, Simon Smyth and 16-year-old right back Paul Grinter.

The result edges Norton, who themselves are now without a win in six, towards the drop zone.

Millwey Rise 3 Crewkerne Town 1
(abandoned 63 minutes)

A FRACTURED skull suffered by Millwey 'keeper Steve O'Brien forced the abandonment of this promotion battle at First Avenue with Millwey leading 3-1 through goals from Marc Jenkins, Keith Forsey and Matt Hall.

The Millwey gloveman received his injury in a routine challenge with a Crewkerne defender. With just 63 minutes played the league will probably decide to replay the match which was held up whilst the Devon Air Ambulance was in attendance.

O'Brien was taken to Exeter and then onto Plymouth hospital. "He's got a triple fracture, but thankfully there is no damage to his brain" said Rise player-manager Shane Featherstone.

The whole of the league will no doubt wish Steve a full and speedy recovery.

Netherbury 1 Winsham United 0

A FIRST minute goal, via a post, from John Kingston was enough to move Netherbury up into the Division One promotion places.

The woodwork was to play quite a part in this stormy encounter with Tim Hussey being denied by the upright.

The Division's top scorer also failed with two one-on-one opportunities to add to his 18 goals so far this season.

Ambers boss Andy Loudon picked out 'keeper Matt Sherring as his star performer.

South Petherton Res 3 Uplyme 0

"WE looked really rusty and that pitch is certainly not the one you would pick to play on after a Christmas break" was Uplyme manager Rob Coombe's assessment of his side's lack lustre showing against a Petherton side superbly marshaled by pick-of-the-league manager Karl Diment.

Pethy were 2-0 up inside 15 minutes and added a third though a late own goal. Earlier both teams observed a minute's silence in memory of lifelong Uplyme supporter Ron Matthews, grandfather of current player Greg.

◆ PYMORE player-manager Matt Tither will take on the challenge of the Virgin London Marathon on Sunday, 17th April.

Matt will be running in aid of St Margaret's Hospice - a charity committed to providing specialist care and support for patients and families with a terminal or life-limiting illness.

The charity is very special to both Matt and his family "About six years ago my Grandfather was diagnosed with cancer and spent the final weeks of his life being cared for by the kind and friendly staff at the hospice in Taunton. I would like to give something back to the Hospice" he said. If you would like to support Matt in his fundraising sponsorship forms are available by texting Matt on 07967093563 or you can sponsor him on line by debit/credit card at www.justgiving.com/Matt-Tither

DIVISION THREE

Lyme Bantams 7 Farway Utd Res 2

A HAT-TRICK from 16-year-old Jack Durrant was the highlight as Lyme Regis Bantams returned to form with a 7-2 hammering of visiting Farway United Reserves.

It was all over at half-time with the Seaside's 5-1 to the good. Durrant opened the scoring but Farway captain Bob Down soon leveled.

Two goals in a minute from Ryan Fifer then swung the game the way of the hosts and there was no way back for the Devonians.

Midfielder Derek Walkey made it 4-1 on the half-hour with a typically composed finish. Reserve team manager Gerard Hitchcock then completed the first-half-goal glut in the 32nd minute.

A neat pass from Rob Larcombe set Durrant up for his second soon after the restart and the youngster completed his triple with a fine header from a pinpoint cross from Ashley Walkey.

Farway scored a late consolation when veteran Graham Barton nodded home his 199th PSL goal against one of his former club's after Lyme keeper Will Meech had tipped long range scorcher onto his crossbar.

Hitchcock was impressed by the contributions of Durrant and right-back Rhys Paterson.

Exmouth U16 4 Uplyme 3

AFTER A period of Uplyme pressure, two goals around the half-hour mark just before the half hour mark put hosts' Exmouth in control.

Uplyme immediately responded with their own double from Harry Thresher and Johnny Turner. To leave the sides all square at the interval.

The start of the second half saw much of the play in the Uplyme half and defenders George Heath and Jamie Wellman worked hard with keeper James Dunford to thwart the Exmouth attack. Some ill-discipline by Exmouth gave Uplyme chances from several free kicks and a penalty, slotted in by Sam Jones. Ten minutes a penalty at the other end gave Exmouth their equaliser.

Play was then fairly even until in the final minutes when the hosts broke away to bag the winner.

Uplyme's Man-of-the-Match was Matt Pile.

Golfers celebrate

WHILE the extreme wintry conditions outside were picturesque albeit prohibitive for golf, members of the Lyme Golf Club assembled to recall and celebrate triumphs and success over the previous 12 months.

On display was an impressive array of trophies ready to be awarded by the captains of their respective sections of the club.

Amongst the winners and runners-up were some familiar names but it was also pleasing to see some new names appearing on the list of winners.

It was also good to see some of the younger members of the club emulating their parents in achieving success in the Junior division competitions.

Seniors

THE Monday following the successful completion of the medal event saw a significant change in the weather and course conditions.

Following overnight rain, buggies were not allowed on the course and the field was consequently much reduced. However, some of the 47 stalwarts who did venture out for the Stableford competition recorded some highly respectable scores in the conditions.

In division one Ted Baker (15) not only scored a highly commendable 37points but recorded the only "two" of the day. In second place was the ever consistent Brian Ridley (18) with 34 points with Mike Betteridge (18) achieving third on countback with 33 points. Division two was

LATE GOAL FOILS MAGPIES

DORCHESTER TOWN 3 EASTBOURNE BOROUGH 3 FA Trophy Round Two - Att: 402

DORCHESTER Town came within a minute of providing a deserved upset in this FA Trophy 2nd Round match when full-back Neil Jenkins grabbed an equaliser for Eastbourne Borough with an ambitious and well executed overhead kick.

The Magpies had twice fought back from a goal down to lead their Blue Square Premier opponents with a goal from skipper Mark Jermyn with just 13 minutes left on the clock, before Jenkins at the far post with his back to goal bicycle kicked Neil Crabb's attempted header from a corner into the net from six yards.

With Dorchester seeking for their first success of the New Year and Eastbourne having lost six of their last seven matches, both sides were looking for victory to kick start the rest of the season.

AFC Bournemouth loanee Jayden Stockley made his home debut for the county town side which saw flu victim Jermyn and Kyle Critchell, having recovered from his knee injury, replace James Couatts and Jake Smeeton in the starting line-up.

With a strong wind blowing down the pitch and an uneven sandy surface, both sides struggled to play any constructive football, and with a nit-picking referee who stopped the game at every opportunity, the first-half by and large was scrappy.

Dorchester playing with the wind behind them had most of the early play, with Stockley showing that he was not afraid to get stuck in and winning some good ball in the air.

However it was 17 minutes before either keeper had anything to do; visiting glove-man Rikki Banks having to be watchful as a 20-yard looping header from Steve Devlin assisted by the wind, bounced just in front of him and he had to catch the ball above his head.

It was a surprise therefore that Eastbourne took the lead on 24 minutes. Former Brighton man Steve Brinkhurst, who had an excellent game throughout, out-paced Neil Martin in a 20-yard run down the right before delivering a superb cross which drifted away from Magpies keeper Regan Coward on the wind, for Richard Pacquette to thunder home a powerful header from six yards.

Dorchester responded almost immediately when Ryan Moss, who once again led the line with courage and energy, headed the ball into Devlin's path, but his 20-yard shot went past the left hand upright.

On 34 minutes Stockley's thumping header flew wide after Ben Austin had headed Devlin's cross behind for a corner.

Dorchester finally got the reward for their first half taming of their higher leagued opponents, by equalising in the second minute of added time.

Martin had put Moss in behind the visitor's defence, but it looked as if he had missed his chance as he dragged his shot across Banks but beyond the far post, but Nick Crittenden showed great awareness sliding in to turn the ball home from an acute angle.

Crittenden was alert again 20 seconds into the second-half, but couldn't keep his attempted lob from the edge of the box down after Banks had dropped the ball.

Dorchester were playing better into the wind, and Stockley and Moss combined to carve through the Eastbourne defence, but the loanee's final pass was just a touch too far.

On the hour Stockley won the ball with a crunching tackle but was then stopped in his run by Austin.

The resulting free-kick saw Devlin's shot hit the wall and rebound to Crittenden whose shot just cleared the angle of the goal frame.

Almost immediately Pacquette restored Eastbourne's lead against the run of play with a combination of neat footwork and poor defending.

A stretching Gary Bowles managed to cut out a pass across the box, but the ball fell to Crabb who fed Pacquette. Somehow the former QPR striker nicked the ball over Walker and neatly lobbed Critchell before stop volleying the ball over Coward.

This led to Eastbourne's most dominant period with Coward forced to push Ethan Strevett's low shot around the post and then claw away a header that caught on the wind, forcing him to dive full length.

Dorchester equalised on 70 minutes when Crittenden once again appeared at the far post to turn home Moss' deflected shot that looped over Banks, and once again the Magpies took control with Moss and Stockley causing panic in the visiting defence.

The latter set up the former who cut inside but his driven cross was cut out, before Stockley in his last action before being replaced by Rico Wilson, burst between two defenders to head Martin's cross straight at Banks.

A minute later they took the lead. A quickly taken Martin throw-in found Jermyn on the byeline who cleverly hooked the ball goalwards, and the ball dropped over Banks head and just inside the far post.

Action was end to end as time ran down and it looked like Dorchester had claimed a major scalp, and passage into the last sixteen until Jenkins late strike.

Both sides must do it all over again at Priority Lane on Tuesday night for the right to host Blue Square North outfit Guiseley in the quarter-finals

Terras hit by Rowe brace WEYMOUTH 1 LEAMINGTON 2 Zamaretto Premier - Attendance: 508

A FIRST half brace from James Rowe was enough to condemn Weymouth to their fourth successive defeat, whilst new manager Martyn Rogers, appointed after the match, sat in the stands.

Rogers, who occupied the hot-seat at Tiverton Town for over 1000 games spread over 20 seasons, saw an improved second-half performance resulting in Mark Oldring pulling back a goal four minutes from time, but not enough to earn them any points.

A frantic opening saw promotion hopefuls Leamington take a fourth minute lead when Luke Corbett nodded the ball down for Rowe to side foot home from close in.

Corbett then headed a second seven minutes later but was ruled offside, before Tom Manley had to be alert to push Oldring's header over the bar as he defended Alex Taylor's cross.

However Rowe doubled the Brakes advantage when he coolly lifted his keeper Tony Breeden's huge clearance over Manley a minute before the break.

The visitor's dominance continued after the interval as both Corbett and Rowe going close, before Weymouth finally got a foot hold in the game. A Sam Clarke effort just cleared the bar and Breeden was forced to make a smart save.

Oldring gave the Terras hope four minutes from time when he headed home from Jamie Beasley's corner, but they could not pierce the solid Brakes defence again.

Whilst the Terras remain nine points from safety, they need to start picking up points as others around them begin to consolidate their positions and will soon leave them isolated.

Bees set for table-top clash BRIDPORT 4 PORTISHEAD TOWN 1 Toolstation Division One - Att: 112

BRIDPORT eased past bottom side Portishead Town with a comfortable victory that sets them up well for next Saturday's top of the table clash with Merthyr Town.

A second-half brace from Ryan Dovell, to take his season's tally to 13 in just 17 games, added to strikes from Russell Legg and Dan Wise to ensure the Bees kept on the shirt tails of the Welsh side.

With Sam Filkins situation yet to be resolved, manager Trevor Senior recalled Lee Cleal in goal for only his second game of the season, and he didn't put a foot wrong.

Bridport took the lead after just five minutes through Russell Legg who volleyed home from the edge of the box after Dovell had kept Wise's corner alive by nodding it back to the midfielder.

Soon after Chris Clarke had a chance with a left foot shot which the Possets keeper Seb Gribble saved, and although Bridport were in complete control, they didn't extend their lead until the 37th minute.

Gribble failed to hold Jamie Symes' shot and then felled down Legg as he contested the ball. Wise made no mistake from the spot, sending the keeper the wrong way.

Dovell grabbed his first on 56 minutes when he picked up a loose ball to score from close in, after Chris Senior having made a run into the box, cleverly back-heeled the ball towards goal and it ricocheted off a defender.

Three up, Senior, with next week in mind made some changes, bring on Dan Peart and Tristan Gale for Legg and Darren Lock. Wise smashed a 30-yard thunderbolt against the bar before Portishead pulled one back when Nick Steadman took advantage of misunderstanding in the Bees defence by reacting first when the ball came back off the post.

However there was no stopping Bridport and Dovell completed their fourth consecutive Toolstation Western League Division One victory when he converted from close in after Gale had stepped over Shane Evans, excellent cross into the six-yard box.

Evans then had a shot blocked on the line by a combination of Gribble and a defender.

Senior said: "It was a fairly comfortable win, and although they came into it a bit in the second half, we were never under any real pressure.

Lee Cleal played well and it was good that he had a chance of 90 minutes in case he is required next week. I also thought Russell Legg had an excellent game.

"At the start of the month I said I wanted three wins before we played Merthyr Town and the lads have delivered on that. "They are loving it at the moment and there's a great atmosphere around the place.

We are getting some good crowds too and hopefully there'll be a bumper one next Saturday."

Senior added: "The groundsman has done a great job to get these last two games on, and we have played some good stuff on the pitch."

Bees breeze past Granby GRANBY ROVERS 0 BRIDPORT 3RDS 3

BRIDPORT Thirds put themselves back into the promotion race with a comfortable victory over top of the table Granby.

Having slipped after a great start to the season and then deducted three points, Bridport needed to beat the Weymouth side to give themselves a chance in Dorset League Division Two.

With no reserve match they welcomed back Gino Scovell and Richard Pincombe who had recently been promoted, whilst Granby felt the loss of Mark Shallcross and Lee Pattison through suspension.

Manager Jason Forbes had to tinker with the back four with three of the regulars on holiday, and the first quarter of the match was scrappy, not helped by a strong wind that blew down the pitch.

Playing with the gale in the first half, Bridport made the breakthrough midway through when Chris Symes scored a good goal.

Despite no further scoring until the last five minutes of the match, Bridport always looked comfortable, and indeed played better into the wind after the break.

They secured victory when Symes was brought down in the box and Jamie Fry scored from the penalty spot before Ali Boyer completed the scoring with a header a minute from time.

Forbes was pleased with the victory and said: "It was a good result and a good performance.

We defended really well and looked a solid unit, and didn't look like we were going to be beaten.

"The first goal settled us and we started to play as we had at the beginning of the season, and with last week's result hope that it will be the beginning of a decent run of form.

"We are playing with a bit of confidence and have had two clean sheets, and it gets us back in the mix."

Rogers takes the reins

FORMER Tiverton Town manager Martyn Rogers has been named as Weymouth's new boss after the sacking of Ian Hutchinson last week.

Rogers (55), who played for the Terras in the mid-eighties signed a contract until the end of next season after watching his new club lose 2-1 to Leamington on Saturday at the Bob Lucas Stadium.

A former Exeter City and Bath City player, he joined Weymouth in 1984 where he made 132 appearances before signing for Tiverton Town in 1987.

He was appointed player-manager in 1992 but retired from playing the following season.

Rogers went on to manage Tivvy in 1000 games before resigning from the post in May last year, leading them to a number of successes including two FA Vase triumphs in 1999 and 2000 and promotion to the Southern League Premier Division in 2001.

It is also understood that reserve-team manager Brendon King has been offered the assistant manager's role and is currently considering the position.

BOB BUCKLER RACING

Seaview Lad to be retired

BOB Buckler was philosophical about Seaview Lad after he was pulled up at Plumpton on Monday after leading the starsportsbet.co.uk Handicap Chase over 3 ¼ miles.

"He's a lovely horse, but God didn't make him to be a racehorse!"

The eight-year-old who only started racing last May has been disappointing in his five races to date having pulled up in his two chases and been last in two of his three hurdle races.

"He will be retired from racing and find another job. It's a shame as he is a lovely lad but not a racehorse."

Sulpis is another horse with limited racing experience. Since his debut in a bumper in November, he has had three races over hurdles in fairly high class races. He finished midfield in the first two but was pulled up in the William Hill Novices' Hurdle at Kempton on Saturday.

It was a disappointing run, and he gave the impression there was something slightly wrong so we will have him checked out."

An honest Buckler added: "He is a fairly young horse, so maybe I ran him too quickly and need to give him more time to recover between races."

Ethiopia found the ground far too heavy for him at Hereford in the Lindley Catering Handicap Chase last Thursday, and although he kept racing to the end finished sixth.

"The ground was OK in the morning and so we decided to run him, but it became very heavy and he got bogged down."

Buckler will hope for a change in fortune and the conditions this week, although the weather forecast of fine and cold conditions may dry the course out too much for The Sawyer at Ascot on Saturday, and so he is doubtful.

River Indus is expected to go at Taunton tomorrow together with a new member of the stable Ashbourne Folly, a five-year-old gelding just arrived from Ireland who will be making his debut.

"He's a big horse, a chaser in the making, and he will get some experience in the bumper," said Buckler.

Double Dizzy is listed to go at Wincanton on Saturday and Crank Hill at Towcester the following day.

County FA is 125 not out

THE Dorset County Football Association celebrates its 125th Anniversary on 13 April 2012

To commemorate the anniversary the company's Board of Directors have sanctioned the production of a Commemorative Book for the occasion to be published in the early months of 2012.

Twenty-five years ago the association produced a book to celebrate the 'First One Hundred Seasons'.

Local Football Historian Norman Gannaway, who compiled the book, has kindly offered to re-write the first 100 years for the new edition, whilst Peter Hough and Colin Chainey are to compile the most recent 25 years.

In order that the book provides an enjoyable read, covering all aspects of Dorset Football we are appealing to all clubs, match officials, players, administrators and supporters - both past and present - to forward any articles or photographs that they feel may be worthy of inclusion in such a book.

In particular the DFA would like to receive articles concerning outstanding feats and achievements of teams or participants in Dorset Football.

Where possible, please send copies of news cuttings or photographs rather than originals that you may wish to be returned. The more material received, the better for the content of the book.

Please forward any articles to be considered for inclusion in the book, to Colin Chainey, @ Dorset County FA, Blandford Close, Hamworthy, Poole, BH15 4BF or via email: colin.chainey@dorsetfa.com as soon as possible and by no later than the end of June 2011.

Should you wish to discuss anything concerning the production of the book or offer the names and contact details of anyone you know who may be able to offer additional information, please contact 01202 688275.

SAILING

Academy sets World Record

THE Weymouth & Portland Sailing Academy has received confirmation that it has officially set the Guinness World Record™ for the 'Largest Parade of Boats'.

The attempt took place on Sunday, July 25 2010 on the Weymouth and Portland waters and featured over 300 young Optimist sailors.

The requirements to set the new world record were extensive; requiring 300 plus people, all holding a full licence for their boat, to sail a minimum distance of two miles without any significant gaps in the flow of boats.

The attempt was completed with a total of 318 Optimist sailors. The record attempt required a huge amount of skill from the young sailors, all aged between seven and 15, who had to navigate the two mile course whilst keeping a distance of less than two-boat lengths from the other boats.

The success of the attempt can be attributed to the talent of the sailors who were welcomed from across Europe, Asia, United Arab Emirates and even Oceania.

Many of them will have aspirations of Olympic sailing one day like many of their predecessors from the Optimist class.

John Tweed, Chief Executive at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy, commented: 'We are extremely proud of what we accomplished back in July, now officially being a world record holder, I want to extend a big thanks to everyone that made it possible.'

All participants had a great time and we will be able to look back and remember the day we broke a Guinness World Record™.

Gorge start New Year in fine style

AFTER a disastrous end to the old year, when Shipton Gorge A with a player short went down 28-6 to new Weymouth & District Table Tennis League table toppers Colliton A they were given an immediate chance to put the record straight against the same opposition in the return fixture at Shipton.

This time they fared much better with Richard Trim in majestic form taking his games 3-1, 3-0 and 3-0. Chris Glover had two 3-1 victories before having to concede his third 0-3 and Gil Roberts picked up five points with two 1-3 defeats and a 3-0 win.

After a flying start in the doubles, Trim and Roberts let a 2-0 lead slip to a 2-3 defeat and the final match score was a creditable 22-15 win.

There was no stopping the B team either who travelled to Dorset Youth Association with their strongest team an chalked up an emphatic 29-8 victory to put themselves clear at the top of the table.

Jim Saunders, Bruce Beal and Ron Tucknott all recorded maximum nine point tallies but Dorset Youth salvaged some pride with a 3-2 victory against Beal and Saunders in the doubles.

The C team did their colleagues a favour by securing a 22-14 win at home against a strong Preston A side.

Peter Billingham and Eddy Buck both had nine point maximums although Billingham had to fight hard to keep his 100 per cent record after going behind 0-2 before recovering to win 3-2 against Paul Beeston.

Despite a number of close games Gary Edwardes struggled with lack of match practice, and had to settle for a point.

Buck and Billingham took the doubles 3-1 to round off a good win.

Beaminster Ladies miss their chance

BEAMINSTER Ladies had a great chance to climb to safety last weekend when they played a double header against sides around them in the lower half of Channel Division 1.

With only eight sides in the league, it is imperative to take the opportunity to beat those nearest you to maintain your status. Beaminster, lying sixth, had an excellent chance to put daylight between the other lower sides when they travelled to bottom side Bournemouth 4 on Saturday, and then hosted Yeovil & Sherborne 3 who lay immediately above them in fifth.

Unfortunately they didn't take advantage of their superior play, letting a two goal lead slip at Chapel Gate to earn just a point, and then going down by a single goal on Sunday.

Two wins would have put them within touching distance of fourth place and four points clear of the bottom three.

Now they have a fight on their hands to maintain their League 1 status.

Bournemouth 4th 2 Beaminster 2 BEAMINSTER began this match in determined mood and took an early lead from a short corner routine, Freya Crawford finishing at the near post. They doubled their advantage when Crawford fed Emma Davies to score another good goal.

Bournemouth finally found their form and after several attempts at breaking down the Beaminster defence, reduced the deficit just before half time.

Beaminster continued to take the game to Bournemouth after the break, with player of the match Julia May working tirelessly in centre midfield, but the hosts drew level through a lucky breakaway to secure a point.

Despite a concerted effort Beaminster could not break down the home defence with the aid of some dubious umpiring decisions.

◆ Team: Andrews, White, Brown, Craddock, Hughes, Drewery, Donovan, May, Timbrell, Crawford, Davies

Beaminster 0 Yeovil & Sherborne 3rd 1 BOTH sides were playing their second game within 24 hours, Yeovil having been beaten 5-2 at Gillingham.

Beaminster dominated the first half, and were unlucky not to have taken the lead on several occasions but for a superb display by the Yeovil keeper. Emma Davies found her too good when Beaminster forced two short corners in succession on eight minutes, before Harriet Hughes went close two minutes later. She then repelled another three superb short corner routines midway through the half; the second one involving three sprawling saves as Beaminster forwards pounded her goal.

Despite their positive approach, their efforts failed to produce a goal, and then on 22 minutes Yeovil scored with their first and almost only direct shot; Debbie Green scrambling the ball home from close range following some scrappy play in the D.

Beaminster continued to dominate particularly in midfield with Andrea Thomas working hard and they came close again on the stroke of halftime when Sarah Davies just failed to get on to the end of a cross from Danni Donovan.

Yeovil showed more in the second half with May and Donovan dominating the midfield exchanges, but with both sides feeling the effects of a long weekend neither side could produce enough clear cut opportunities up front, although Green was always a threat for the visitors with her speed.

Beaminster will feel disappointed not to have taken something from this match considering the chances they created, particularly in the first half, but now face a challenge to keep out of the relegation zone.

Player-of-the-Match was shared between Donovan and Ali White, who marshalled the Beaminster defence effectively throughout the game.

◆ Team: Andrews, E.Davies, White, Drewery, Spicer, Hughes, May, Donovan, S.Davies, Craddock, Thomas, Crawford.

RUGBY ROUND-UP

WITH KEITH JENKIN

House double sees Puddletown home

I DECIDED to travel West instead of East on Saturday last, and watched Devon & Cornwall League Leaders, Bideford, stretch away to a win over Honiton.

WEYMOUTH 11 SWANAGE & WAREHAM 2nd 6

THE home side chose to play with the not inconsiderable wind at their backs in the first period and, although they did create chances, an obdurate visitors' defence limited their first half successes to a couple of penalty goals kicked by Peplow.

I would imagine that the Swanage & Wareham camp was the more satisfied at the halfway stage, and this feeling would have been reinforced when they kicked a penalty goal of their own some fifteen minutes into the second period.

In fact the third quarter saw the visitors on top, only for Weymouth to reimpose themselves around the hour mark when they scored a try out wide after they had gone through several phases, protecting their own possession and recycling well.

Although the try remained unconverted it proved to be enough. The visitors tried to mount something of a rally, principally through their large tight five. The home side matched them in this area however with number six, Sam Morris, doing good tidying up work and, although Swanage & Wareham narrowed the gap by kicking another penalty just before the end, they could not do more and Weymouth held on for the win that was certainly deserved in view of their defensive display.

SWANAGE & WAREHAM 4th 17 WEYMOUTH 2nd 19

THE first 20 minutes of this game virtually belonged to the visitors. They scored two tries during this period, both touched down by debutant winger Luke Savage, and one converted by skipper Allen.

At this juncture however, one of the home side sustained a serious injury with the result that the game had to be moved to a different pitch. This is never a satisfactory happening in any game and Weymouth certainly lost focus subsequently, allowing their opponents to score two tries of their own and thus tying the scores at 12-12.

They managed to re-establish control later in the game however and, from a five yard scrum, scrum half Matt Mason belied his advancing years and was the first to react as his pack pushed over. Allen added the extras to this touchdown too and, although the home side came back with a try of their own, they could not convert it and, in spite of exerting pressure on the Weymouth line during the final stages, the defence coped and held out for the win.

PUDDLETOWN 13, NORTH DORSET 3rd 10

THE home side chose to face the elements initially in this Dorset & Wilts League Division Two encounter, and really could hardly have got off to a better start.

The visitors' drop out was fielded by centre Yeatman who, having found himself space, ran strongly before being checked on the North Dorset twenty two. His off-load found Marcus House however, and he outflanked the last cover to get over.

Although the try remained unconverted Puddletown continued as they had started, and certainly had the better of the first quarter. The visitors had begun to settle however and, although Udell increased the home lead with a penalty goal after 25 minutes, the balance of play shifted as the North Dorset pack began to make its presence felt.

Their pressure gained reward just before the break when an unconverted try reduced the arrears and, with the scoreline standing at 8-5 at the change round, matters were far from resolved.

Puddletown began the second period as they had the first and, after five minutes' play, Musgrove initiated a move that was again completed by House who touched down for his second try of the game.

For a time more home scores looked possible but the Puddletown effort received a set back on the hour when lock Talbot had to leave the field with a neck injury which was subsequently found to be less serious than originally feared.

On the resumption the visitors again came into their own, and the home side spent the final quarter in defensive mode. They coped more than adequately however and held out until the whistle for no side, to record a welcome win after what was really a close run thing.

BRIDPORT 14 CORSHAM 43

AN inept first quarter put any thoughts aside the home side might have had of making it two wins out of two. By the time twenty minutes of this Southern League encounter had elapsed, Corsham had scored three tries and converted two of them.

The fact that sickness had blighted the Bridport side and deprived them of some half dozen first choice players was of course a mitigating circumstance, but the fact remained.

They found a bit of shape later in the half and were perhaps a little unfortunate to concede a further converted try just before the break that really put the result beyond doubt, as they trailed 26-0 at the half way stage.

A further blow came just after the resumption when prop, Sullivan was sent to the bin, but they held out in his absence, and he marked his return with a try, converted by Gaylor, that reduced the arrears. Corsham did reply with a touchdown of their own, unconverted this time, but Bridport were playing better now and, after a quickly taken short penalty, their man of the match, scrum-half Mick Hill, scuttled over.

Gaylor again added the extras to give the scoreline some respectability, only for Corsham to cement their win with two late tries, one of which they converted.

The Bridport second side, depleted by first team calls as they were, struggled to compete with a Wheatsheaf Cabin Crew side who are making something of a mark in the Dorset & Wilts League Division Two (South) this season, and went down 34-5.

TROWBRIDGE 25 DORCHESTER 22

ONE or two gremlins got inside the Dorchester side's trip to Trowbridge and caused trouble. A car breakdown en route meant that several of the side did not arrive before kick off time and therefore had to start without a warm up. The home side took full advantage and scored two early tries, one of which they converted.

Having got the stiffness out of their legs, the visitors came back and a try in the corner by James Baker, making a welcome return to the fold, set the ball rolling. Then number eight Mitchell surged over by the posts for Bament to convert, and thus to tie the scores at 12-12, and they were really back in the mix.

Trowbridge are a useful outfit however and, just before the break, their full back came into the line on the wide outside and got over in the corner to give his side a five point lead at the halfway stage.

Now with the breeze in their favour, Dorchester would have felt confident but, in the event, the third quarter was a pretty inconclusive affair, with play being confined, for the most part anyway, to midfield.

It was Read, the Dorchester full-back, who broke the deadlock. He gathered in midfield, found space and sprinted over from the Trowbridge ten yard line. He scored by the posts, making things easy for his place kicker and Bament duly obliged by adding the extras to give his side a two point lead. Alas! from the restart some indecision allowed the home hooker to get over for a simple try and, although Bament was able to level the scores at 22-22 with a subsequent penalty goal, a similar effort edged Trowbridge clear once more.

Dorchester did mount something of a rally and the bounce perhaps denied them late on, as the home side held out for the win, leaving Dorchester with a losing bonus point.

It was in fact a bit of a difficult day for the Dorchester club all round, with their second side having to concede its away fixture due to team raising difficulties. Their third side played however and came out on top of Bournemouth fourths 40-17.

PREVIEW

THERE is not much first team rugby being played locally on Saturday next. The weekend is devoted to the playing of league (catch up) fixtures and, as WEYMOUTH is more or less up to date with its league programme, it had no fixture at first team level.

BRIDPORT face a real tester, for their hosts, OLDFIELD OLD BOYS, have, after a rather illit or missi start to their league campaign, come good in recent weeks. In fact they put a dent in leaders Salisbury's one hundred per cent record last time out by holding them to a draw.

Much will depend on Bridport's sickness reports but, unless they are at full strength and at their best, they could well face a long afternoon at Bath.

PUDDLETOWN on the other hand, have a real chance to make it three wins from three when they take on POOLE at home. Their opponents lie a couple of places above them in the table and this could well be a close one.

DORCHESTER have what is, on paper anyway, the easiest task of the three when they visit FROME who lie very much in the bottom half of the table and have not scored nearly as freely as their opponents thus far. It will need an eighty minutes effort however and they will not be able to afford themselves the luxury of switching off, as they did against Marlborough.

As to the second sides, Weymouth seconds face a tough encounter when they visit Wincanton, while Bridport seconds are unlikely to come back with much joy from Frome seconds.

Both Dorchester seconds and thirds have home games, and both will probably be close ones, for they take on opponents Wheatsheaf Cabin Crew and Salisbury thirds respectively.

Rugby extras

Dorchester U16 29 Ivel Barbarians 35

THIS was a highly entertaining game which Dorchester had won until they showed they were the perfect hosts by allowing Ivel two late, and soft, tries to steal victory.

Although Ivel hadn't played a game in nearly eight weeks they started the brighter, and with a stiff breeze at their backs, immediately put Dorchester under pressure.

With the visitors showing pace and inventiveness they soon found themselves 7-0 up following a well worked converted try.

The home side hit straight back and mounted a series of attacks in the visitors' 22, and when a driving maul found the home side within sight of the try line, Hugh Vivian peeled off the back and touched down - but the conversion was missed.

From the restart Dorchester attacked again with Ivel giving away three successive penalties in their 22, resulting in a quick tap which saw Vivian over for his second try which was converted. The rest of the half was evenly contested until Dorchester conceded two late converted tries to end the half 12-21 down.

Playing up the slope, Dorchester exerted early pressure and when Smith chipped over the approaching winger, James Bickley showed great vision following it up and touching down with Smith converting.

Pressure from Ivel down their left wing saw second row Sam Pollard make a great cover tackle and prevent a certain score.

Some excellent rucking and mauling put the pressure back on Ivel, and when Lewis White hit a ruck at a great body angle clearing out two players, it left clean ball for Ali James who popped it out to the rampaging Pollard who was unstoppable from 10 yards to touch down under the posts. With the successful conversion Dorchester had a six point advantage.

Dorchester continued to press resulting in further infringements from the visitors, the final one straight in front of the posts which Smith slotted over to extend the lead to eight points.

However this in the end did not prove to be enough as Ivel, sensing that the tackling of the home side was not at its best, rallied and ran in two converted tries in the final minutes to steal victory.

BLAKE READY FOR WORLD CHAMPS

PAUL BLAKE is in good heart and form ahead of the IPC World Championships that start in Christchurch, New Zealand this weekend.

Paul, from Charlton Down, celebrated his 21st birthday at training camp in Auckland last week before moving to the south island on Monday after ten days of intensive training.

These paralympic games are the last major gathering before London 2012, and Paul who will be competing in the T36 class in three events has great prospects of medals in all three disciplines.

His mother Kate told View From: "His emails have been very upbeat. He is enjoying the hot weather and despite a 27 hour flight, he says he is feeling strong and training has gone well."

The games open on Friday, and Paul's begins his quest for medals with the final of the 1500m on Sunday (23rd) for which he is currently the fastest man in the world.

Heats for the 800m, for which Paul also currently holds the world's fastest time are on Wednesday with the final the following day (27th). The 400m, which whilst his weakest event he still has a good chance of a medal, follows on Friday and Saturday.

Kate added: "He has had some problems with his legs over the last few months but the physios and doctors have done a good job so fingers crossed that he remains fit."

"This schedule would prove heavy for an able bodied runner so you have to appreciate what this implies for someone with cerebral palsy. Nevertheless, he is determined to win medals in all three."

"Being away for his 21st birthday, we are hoping that he will be able to enjoy a double celebration when he gets back home on February 1st."

More than 1,000 athletes from 70 countries will be competing in Christchurch and you can follow his progress on television.

Each day throughout the championships starting from the first day of competition (January 22nd) www.ParalympicSport.TV will be broadcasting live coverage of the evening session between 2am and 6am GMT or Channel 5 will also be covering the event.

Uplyme & Lyme Regis Cricket Club launch anniversary celebrations

UPLYME & LYME REGIS Cricket Club is holding an evening 'get together' on Friday, January 28th in the club pavilion.

The first part of the evening will be an opportunity for players to sign-on for club for the upcoming 2011 season.

If players choose to pay their subscription on the evening the cost will be £20. Otherwise the fee for the 2011 season will be £25 for full playing members.

Following the signing-on there will be an opportunity for a get together for ex-players and member. It is hoped that many of the playing members will stay and join in. The invitation is to an evening of cricketing memories and anecdotes. There will be a well food included in the ticket price of £5.

Club chairman Paul Messer said: "It is hoped that an evening in the pavilion will stir old memories and provide new ones."

The point to all this is that this year is our 125th anniversary. Plans are being discussed over the production of a brochure/magazine to produce a magazine reviewing highlights of the club's history over its lifetime.

However, in addition to the club history it is proposed that the pages will be enhanced by some of the more memorable anecdotes and recollections that it is hoped will come to light."

The evening starts at 7pm - for further details ring 07831 633180)

INSIDE: Lyme Regis Cribbage League scores and tables

TITLE HOPES STILL ALIVE

AN 80th minute header from Joel Gostling has ensured that Lyme Regis' ambitions of a first ever successful defence of the Perry Street League Premier Division title remains on track.

The Seaside's beat Merriott Rovers 3-2 in a match wisely switched to Merriott due to the saturated state of the Davey Fort pitch.

After some far from convincing performances, Lyme manager Robin Townsend felt there were some signs of a return to the kind of form that brought the championship to this particular corner of West Dorset last May, he said: "We looked good. The score line doesn't do the performance justice - we could have had eight."

Townsend made a slight change to his line-up with striker Joe Bond reverted to the left flank and Gostling going in the opposite direction "I was looking for Joe to get up and back on the wing - he did just that, and Joel also looked sharp up top".

By HOWARD LARCOMBE

Next up for the Seaside's is Saturday's visit by bottom-of-the-league Combe Reserves.

Townsend is urging players from all three Lyme squads to attend the club's training session at Colfox School tonight (7pm): "This is a critical time of the season, all players should be aiming to raise their fitness levels."

Meanwhile Beamminster's 3-2 win over Ferndown Sports has left both the Rainbows' and Seaside's camps eagerly anticipating tomorrow's draw for the Dorset Intermediate Cup semi-finals.

Lyme Bantams, with Reserve team manager Gerard Hitchcock at the helm for the day, ended a five match losing run by crushing Farway United Reserves 7-2 at Uplyme with teenager Jack Durrant notching a first ever hat-trick.

The Bantams are due to entertain struggling Winsham United Reserves at Venlake at the weekend.

Lyme Reserves return to action with a tough looking trip to promotion-chasing Millwey Rise. The Devonians, whose goalkeeper Steve O'Brien suffered a triple fracture to the skull in last weekend's abandoned game with Crewkerne, are unbeaten at home in the league for 20-months.

There was good news from Barrs Lane where Dan Rendall scored the winner in a 3-2 win over Norton as Charmouth recorded their first win of the season.

Uplyme were left gasping in the wide open spaces of Lightgate Lane as they were well-beaten 3-0 by hosts South Petherton Reserves.

The Swallows, whose promotion ambitions now look to be over, will hope for better when they visit Crewkerne Rangers at the weekend.
